style Publisher description Summary of Abraham H. Maslow's Toward a Psychology of Being Everest Media,2022-04-05T22:59:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1 The new conception of human sickness and health is based on the assumptions that we have an essential biologically based inner nature that is good or neutral and that it is best to bring this out and encourage it rather than to suppress it 2 The classical approach to personality problems considers them to be problems in an undesirable sense Struggle conflict guilt bad conscience anxiety depression frustration and tension are all symptoms of sick and undesirable people But all of these symptoms are found in healthy people or people who are growing toward health 3 The classical Freudian notion of a superego is entirely authoritarian and relativistic It is the internalization of the wishes demands and ideals of the father and mother whoever they may be But there is also another kind of conscience which is based on the unconscious and preconscious perception of our own nature 4 The question of whether or not it is possible to grow and self fulfill without pain and grief is also important to consider If these are to some extent unavoidable then to what extent If grief and pain are sometimes necessary for growth then we must learn not to protect people from them automatically Toward a Psychology of Being-Reprint of 1962 Edition First Edition Abraham H. Maslow,2011-09 2011 Reprint of 1962 First Edition Full facsimile of the original edition not reproduced with Optical Recognition Software In this compelling book Professor Maslow uses studies of psychologically healthy people and of the healthiest experiences and moments in the lives of average people to demonstrate that human beings can be loving noble and creative that they are capable of pursuing the highest values and aspirations A classic text in the field of humanistic psychology A Theory of Human Motivation Stoyan Stoyanov,2017 US psychologist Abraham Maslow s A Theory of Human Motivation is a classic of psychological research that helped change the field for good Like many field changing thinkers Maslow was not just a talented researcher he was also a creative thinker able to see things from a new perspective and show them in a different light At a time when psychology was dominated by two major schools of thought Maslow was able to forge a new third paradigm that remains influential today Sigmund Freud s psychoanalysis had developed the idea of understanding the mind through dialogue between patient and analyst The behaviorism of Ivan Pavlov and John Watson had focused on comprehending the mind through behaviors that could be measured trained and changed Maslow however generated new ideas forging what he called positive or humanistic psychology His argument was that humans are psychologically motivated by a series of hierarchical needs starting with the most essential first Maslow thought it important for the advancement of psychology to identify group and rank these needs in terms of priority His belief in the value of this third way was important in leading those who studied psychology to redefine the discipline and so see it in new ways Provided by publisher The Farther Reaches of Human Nature Abraham Harold Maslow,1971 Papers on health creativeness values education society cognition metamotivation as well as psychology of being Religions, Values, and Peak-experiences Abraham Harold Maslow,1976-01 Maslow on Management Abraham H.

A Psychological Perspective on Joy and Emotional Fulfillment Chris Meadows,2013-11-26 Throughout the history of psychology there have been full investigations of discrete emotions particularly negative ones and a recent wealth of books on happiness but few exist on the emotion of joy This book takes a unique psychological approach to understanding this powerful emotion and provides a framework within which the study of human joy and other related positive fulfillment experiences can fit in a meaningful schema A key feature of this book is its development of an experiential phenomenology of joy This phenomenology is based on more than three hundred descriptions of joy experiences recounted by subjects in an empirical study executed by the author Types of joy experiences are examined such as excited vs serene joy anticipatory vs completed joy and affiliative vs individuated joy There is no comparable book or work that clarifies the relationship among major positive states with emotional components including satisfaction happiness and ecstasy Religions Values and Peak-Experiences Abraham H.

Maslow,2021-11-09T16:42:00Z One of the foremost spokesmen for the Third Force movement in psychology Abraham H Maslow here articulates one of his prominent theses the religious experience is a rightful subject for scientific investigation and speculation and conversely the scientific community will see its work enhanced by acknowledging and studying the species wide need for spiritual expression which in so many forms is at the heart of peak experiences reached by healthy fully functioning people Humanistic Psychology: Interviews with Maslow, Murphy, and Rogers Willard B.

Frick,Abraham Harold Maslow,Gardner Murphy,Carl Ransom Rogers,1971 One Nation Under Therapy Christina Hoff Sommers,Sally Satel,2025-08-22 Americans have traditionally placed great value on self reliance and fortitude In recent decades however we have seen the rise of a therapeutic ethic that views Americans as emotionally underdeveloped psychically frail and requiring the ministrations of mental health professionals to cope with life s vicissitudes Being in touch with one's feelings and freely expressing them have become paramount personal virtues Today with a book for every ailment a counselor for every crisis a lawsuit for every grievance and a TV show for every conceivable problem we are at risk of degrading our native ability to cope with life's challenges Drawing on established science and common sense Christina Hoff Sommers and Dr Sally Satel reveal how therapism and the burgeoning trauma industry have come to pervade our lives Help is offered everywhere under the presumption that we need it in children's classrooms the workplace churches courtrooms the media the military But with all the help comes a host of troubling consequences including The myth of stressed out homework burdened hypercompetitive and depressed or suicidal schoolchildren in need of therapy and medication The loss of moral bearings in our approach to lying crime addiction and other foibles and vices The unasked for grief counselors who descend on bereaved families schools and communities following a tragedy offering dubious advice while billing plenty of money The expansion of Post Traumatic Stress Disorder from an affliction of war veterans to nearly everyone who has experienced a setback Intelligent provocative and wryly amusing One Nation Under Therapy demonstrates that talking about problems is no substitute for confronting them

New Knowledge in Human Values Abraham Harold Maslow, 1959 A More Perfect Union Linda Sargent Wood, 2012-09-01 This book uncovers a holistic sensibility in post World War II American culture that challenged Cold War logic and fed some of the century's most powerful social movements This impulse is illustrated by focusing on Rachel Carson Buckminster Fuller Martin Luther King Jr Abraham Maslow Pierre Teilhard de Chardin and the Esalen Institute

Beyond Decolonial African Philosophy Joseph C. A. Agbakoba, Marita Rainsborough, 2024-12-30 Beyond Decolonial African Philosophy dives into decoloniality discourse challenging some of its shortcomings and offering alternative perspectives on the nature of Africanity and Afrotopia Africa's better future from leading African philosophers Beginning with an overview of philosophy in contemporary Africa the first half of the book goes on to critically interrogate and rethink decoloniality's deconstructivist approach The second half of the book considers a range of alternative new conceptualizations of Afrotopia and Africanity that transcend decolonial theory drawing on constructivist and creative approaches The book considers key questions such as Is Africanity immutable essentialism or mutable nominalism Should we emphasize idealist identitarian concerns or pragmatic developmentarian concerns Should we prioritise African agency or structures and circumstances Should Africa embrace hybrid interculturality and creative self-manifestive identity or essentialist purity Drawing on rich insights from African philosophers across the continent this book challenges students and researchers to think beyond the concept of decolonization to alternative forms of African identities and African futures

Self-Esteem Ian Miller, 2024-02-07 By the end of the twentieth century the idea of self-esteem had become enormously influential A staggering amount of psychological research and self-help literature was being published and before long devoured by readers Self-esteem initiatives permeated American schools Self-esteem became the way of understanding ourselves our personalities our interactions with others Nowadays however few people think much about the concept of self esteem but perhaps we should Self Esteem An American History is the first historical study to explore the emotional politics of self esteem in modern America Written with verve and insight Ian Miller s expert analysis looks at the critiques of self help that accuse it of propping up conservative agendas by encouraging us to look solely inside ourselves to resolve life s problems At the same time he reveals how African American LGBTQ and feminist activists have endeavored to build positive collective identities based on self esteem pride and self respect This revelatory book will be essential reading for anyone with an interest in the history of mental health and well being and in how the politics of self esteem is played out in today s US society and culture

Poetic Theology William A. Dyrness,2011 What are the poetics of everyday life What can they teach us about God Art music dance and writing can certainly be poetic but so can such diverse pastimes as fishing skiing or attending sports events Any and all activities that satisfy our fundamental need for play for celebration and for ritual says William Dyrness are inherently poetic and in Poetic Theology he demonstrates that all such activities are places where God is active in the world All of humanity s creative efforts Dyrness points out testify to our intrinsic longing for joy and delight and our deep desire to connect with others with the created order and especially with the Creator This desire is rooted in the presence and calling of God in and through the good creation With extensive reflection on aesthetics in spirituality worship and community development Dyrness s Poetic Theology will be useful for all who seek fresh and powerful new ways to communicate the gospel in contemporary society William Dyrness s bold invitation to a poetic theology shaped by Scripture tradition and imagination one luring us toward a fuller participation in beauty than argument or concept alone allow reminds us that truth itself is beautiful to behold and poetic to the core If poetry is in its deepest reflex an intensification of life then Dyrness s call for a poetic theology is one we ignore at our peril reminding us that faithful living is not only about proper thinking but also and perhaps more properly about the texture of our living and the quality of our loving Mark S Burrows Andover Newton Theological School Makes a strong case for aesthetics as one of the avenues used by God to draw human beings near to him and his glory A wonderful journey through Reformed spirituality and a wake up call for Reformed theology Cornelius van der Kooi Free University Amsterdam

Repentance Louis E. Newman,2013-07 An inspiring way to reclaim your integrity and renew your sense of moral purpose Like water teshuvah is both destructive and creative It dissolves the person you were but simultaneously provides the moisture you need to grow anew It erodes the hard edges of your willfulness but also refreshes your spirit It can turn the tallest barriers of moral blindness into rubble while it also gently nourishes the hidden seeds of hope buried deep in your soul Teshuvah like water has the power both to wash away past sin and to shower you with the blessing of a new future if only you trust it and allow yourself to be carried along in its current from Part VII In this candid and comprehensive probe into the nature of moral transgression and spiritual healing Dr Louis E Newman examines both the practical and philosophical dimensions of teshuvah Judaism s core religious moral teaching on repentance and its value for us Jews and non Jews alike today He exposes the inner logic of teshuvah as well as the beliefs about God and humankind that make it possible He also charts the path of teshuvah revealing to us how we can free ourselves from the burden of our own transgressions by Acknowledging our transgressions Confessing Feeling remorse Apologizing Making restitution Soul reckoning Avoiding sin when the next opportunity arises
