Toward A Composition Made Whole:

Toward a Composition Made Whole Jody L. Shipka, 2011-04-30 To many academics composition still represents typewritten texts on 8 5 x 11 pages that follow rote argumentative guidelines In Toward a Composition Made Whole Jody Shipka views composition as an act of communication that can be expressed through any number of media and as a path to meaning making Her study offers an in depth examination of multimodality via the processes values structures and semiotic practices people employ every day to compose and communicate their thoughts Shipka counters current associations that equate multimodality only with computer digitized or screen mediated texts which are often self limiting She stretches the boundaries of composition to include a hybridization of aural visual and written forms Shipka analyzes the work of current scholars in multimodality and combines this with recent writing theory to create her own teaching framework Among her methods Shipka employs process oriented reflection and a statement of goals and choices to prepare students to compose using various media in ways that spur their rhetorical and material awareness They are encouraged to produce unusual text forms while also learning to understand the composition process as a whole Shipka presents several case studies of students working in multimodal composition and explains the strategies tools and spaces they employ She then offers methods to critically assess multimodal writing projects Toward a Composition Made Whole challenges theorists and compositionists to further investigate communication practices and broaden the scope of writing to include all composing methods While Shipka views writing as crucial to discourse she challenges us to always consider the various purposes that writing serves

Making Progress Logan Bearden, 2022-04-01 Making Progress is an empirical investigation into the strategies and processes first year composition programs can use to center multimodal work in their curricula Logan Bearden makes a unique contribution to the field presenting a series of flexible strategies evolving considerations and best practices that can be taken up adapted and implemented by programs and directors that want to achieve what Bearden brands multimodal curricular transformation or MCT at their own institutions MCT can be achieved at the intersection of program documents and practices Bearden details ten composition programs that have undergone MCT offering interview data from the directors who oversaw and or participated within the processes He analyzes a corpus of outcomes statements to discover ways we can make space for multimodality and gives instructors and programs a broader understanding of the programmatic values for which they should strive if they wish to make space for multimodal composition in curricula Making Progress also presents how other program documents like syllabi and program websites can bring those outcomes to life and make multimodal composing a meaningful part of first year composition curricula First year composition programs that do not help their students learn to compose multimodal texts are limiting their rhetorical possibilities The strategies in Making Progress will assist writing program directors and faculty who are interested in using multimodality to align programs with current trends in disciplinary scholarship and deal with resistance to curricular revision to ultimately help students become more effective communicators in a digital global age      Play/Write Douglas Eyman, Andréa D. Davis, 2016-04-06 lay Write Digital Rhetoric Writing Games is an edited collection of essays that examines the relationship between games and writing examining how writing functions both within games and the networks of activity that surround games and gameplay The collection is organized based on the primary location and function of the game writing relationship examining writing about games games as objects of critique and sites of rhetorical action ancillary and instructional writing that takes place around games the writing that takes place within the game using games as persuasive forms of communication writing through games and writing that goes into the production of games While not every chapter focuses exclusively on pedagogy the collection includes many selections that consider the possibilities of using computer games in writing instruction However it also provides a bridge between academic views of games as contexts for writing and industry approaches to the writing process in game design as well as an examination of a variety of game related genres that could be used in composition courses

Multimodal Composing and Writing Transfer Kara Poe Alexander, Matthew Davis, Lilian W. Mina, Ryan P. Shepherd, 2024-02-15 Multimodal Composing and Writing Transfer explores transfer across various contexts of multimodal composing extending the early conversations connecting multimodality to writing Contributors address how writing transfer theories intersect with multimodal composing and present methods for facilitating transfer across modes and media offering insight into how writers can learn to compose when they encounter familiar modes in new contexts Over the past two decades the concepts of multimodal composing and writing transfer have grown and reshaped the nature of writing studies but rarely have the ways in which these areas overlap been studied This collection shows how this shift in writing studies has been mutually informative covering a wider range of contexts for multimodality and writing transfer than just in first year composition courses It places composition teaching practices and multimodal research in conversation with learning transfer theory to provide an in depth examination of how they influence one another Multimodal Composing and Writing Transfer develops these intersections to connect multimodal composition and writing practices across a wide array of fields and contexts Scholars across disciplines postsecondary writing teachers writing program administrators writing center directors and graduate students will find this collection indispensable      Engaging 21st Century Writers with Social Media Bryant, Kendra N., 2016-08-23 Basic composition courses have become a fundamental requirement for the major of university degrees available today These classes allow students to enhance their critical thinking writing and reading skills however frequent use of technology and online activity can be detrimental to students comprehension Engaging 21st Century Writers with Social Media is a pivotal reference source for the latest research on the integration of social media platforms into academic writing classes focusing on how such technology encourages writing and enables students to grasp basic composition skills in classroom settings Highlighting emerging theoretical foundations and pedagogical practices this book is ideally designed for educators upper level students researchers and academic professionals      Lives, Letters, and Quilts Vanessa Kraemer Sohan, 2019-12-10 How writers activists and artists without power resist dominant social cultural and political structures through the deployment of unconventional means and materials In Lives Letters and Quilts Women and Everyday Rhetorics of Resistance Vanessa Kraemer Sohan applies a translingual and transmodal framework informed by feminist rhetorical practice to three distinct case studies that demonstrate women using unique and effective rhetorical strategies in political religious and artistic contexts These case studies highlight a diverse set of actors uniquely situated by their race gender class or religion but who are nevertheless connected by their capacity to envision and recontextualize the seemingly ordinary means and materials available to them in order to effectively persuade others The Great Depression provides the backdrop for the first case study a movement whereby thousands of elderly citizens proselytized and fundraised for a monthly pension plan dreamt up by a California doctor in the hopes of lifting themselves out of poverty Sohan investigates how the Townsend Plan s elderly supporters the Townsendites worked within and across language genre mode and media to enable them for the first time to be recognized by others and themselves as a viable political constituency Next Sohan recounts the story of Quaker minister Eliza P Kirkbride Gurney who met President Abraham Lincoln in 1862 Their subsequent epistolary exchanges concerning conscientious objectors made such an impression on him that one of her letters was rumored to be in his pocket the night of his assassination Their exchanges and Gurney s own accounts of her transnational ministry in her memoir provide useful examples of how throughout history women rhetors have adopted and transformed typically underappreciated forms of rhetoric such as the epideictic for their particular purposes The final example focuses on the Gee s Bend quiltmakers a group of African American women living in rural Alabama who repurpose discarded work clothes and other cast off fabrics into the extraordinary quilts for which they are known By drawing on the means and materials at hand to create celebrated works of art in conditions of extreme poverty these women show how marginalized artisans can operate both within and outside the bounds of established aesthetic traditions and communicate the particulars of their experience across cultural and economic divides      Making Matters Leigh Gruwell, 2022-04-15 Craft is a process oriented practice that takes seriously the relationships between bodies both human and nonhuman and makes apparent how these relationships are mired in and informed by power structures Making Matters introduces craft agency a feminist vision of new materialist rhetorics that enables scholars to identify how power circulates and sometimes stagnates within assemblages of actors and provides tools to rectify that uneven distribution To recast new materialist rhetorics as inherently crafty Leigh Gruwell historicizes and locates the concept of craft both within rhetorical history as well as in the disciplinary history of writing studies Her investigation centers on three specific case studies craftivism the fibercraft website Ravelry and the 2017 Women s March These instances all highlight how a material ecological understanding of rhetorical agency can enact political change Craft agency models how we humans might work with and alongside things nonhuman sometimes digital sometimes material to create more equitable relationships Making Matters argues that craft is a useful starting point for addressing criticisms of new materialist rhetorics not only because doing so places rhetorical action as a product of complex relationships between a network of human and nonhuman actors but also because it does so with an explicitly activist agenda that positions the body itself as a material interface

Listening to the Lomax Archive Jonathan W. Stone, 2021-11-29 In 1933 John A Lomax and his son Alan set out as emissaries for the Library of Congress to record the folksong of the American Negro in several southern African American prisons Listening to the Lomax Archive The Sonic Rhetorics of African American Folksong in the 1930s asks how the Lomaxes field recordings including their prison recordings and a long form oral history of jazz musician Jelly Roll Morton contributed to a new mythology of Americana for a nation in the midst of financial social and identity crises Jonathan W Stone argues that folksongs communicate complex historical experiences in a seemingly simple package and can thus be a key element a sonic rhetoric for interpreting the ebb and flow of cultural ideals within contemporary historical moments He contends that the Lomaxes aware of the power folk music used the folksongs they collected to increase national understanding of and agency for the subjects of their recordings including the reconstitution of prevailing stereotypes about African American identity even as they used the recordings to advance their own careers Listening to the Lomax Archive gives readers the opportunity to listen in on these seemingly contradictory dualities demonstrating that they are crucial to the ways that we remember and write about the subjects of the Lomaxes archive and other repositories of historicized sound

Points of Departure Tricia Serviss, Sandra Jamieson, 2018-01-08 Points of Departure encourages a return to empirical research about writing presenting a wealth of transparent reproducible studies of student sources The volume shows how to develop methods for coding and characterizing student texts their choice of source material and the resources used to teach information literacy In so doing the volume advances our understanding of how students actually write The contributors offer methodologies techniques and suggestions for research that move beyond decontextualized guides to grapple with the messiness of research in process as well as design development and expansion Serviss and Jamieson s model of RAD writing studies research is transcontextual and based on hybridized or mixed methods Among these methods are citation context analysis research aloud protocols

Writing the Classroom Stephen E. Neaderhiser, 2022-11-21 Writing the Classroom explores how faculty compose and use pedagogical documents to establish classroom expectations and teaching practices as well as to articulate the professional identities they perform both inside and outside the classroom The contributors to this unique collection employ a wide range of methodological frameworks to demonstrate how pedagogical genres even ones as seemingly straightforward as the class syllabus have lives extending well beyond the classroom as they become part of how college teachers represent their own academic identities advocate for pedagogical values and negotiate the many external forces that influence the act of teaching Writing the Classroom shines a light on genres that are often treated as two dimensional with purely functional purposes arguing instead that genres like assignment prompts course proposals teaching statements and policy documents play a fundamental role in constructing the classroom and the broader pedagogical enterprise within academia Writing the Classroom calls on experienced teachers and faculty administrators to critically consider their own engagement with pedagogical genres and offers graduate students and newer faculty insight into the genres that they may only now be learning to inhabit as they seek to establish their personal teacherly identities It showcases the rhetorical complexity of the genres written in the service of pedagogy not only for students but also for the many other audiences within academia that have a role in shaping the experience of teaching Contributors Michael Albright Lora Arduser Lesley Erin Bartlett Logan Bearden Lindsay Clark Dana Comi Zack K De Piero Matt Dowell Amy Ferdinandt Stolley Mark A Hannah Megan Knight Laura R Micciche Cindy Mooty Dustin Morris Kate Navickas Kate Nesbit Jim Nugent Lori A Ostergaard Cynthia Pengilly Jessica Rivera Mueller Christina Saidy Megan Schoen Virginia Schwarz Christopher Toth

Reimagining Advocacy Elizabeth C. Britt, 2018-04-09 Domestic violence accounts for approximately one fifth of all violent crime in the United States and is among the most difficult issues confronting professionals in the legal and criminal justice systems In this volume Elizabeth Britt argues that learning embodied advocacy a practice that results from an expanded understanding of expertise based on lived experience and adopting it in legal settings can directly and tangibly help victims of abuse Focusing on clinical legal education at the Domestic Violence Institute at the Northeastern University School of Law Britt takes a case study approach to illuminate how challenging the context aims and forms of advocacy traditionally embraced in the U S legal system produces better support for victims of domestic violence She analyzes a wide range of materials and practices including the pedagogy of law school training programs interviews with advocates and narratives written by students in the emergency department and looks closely at the forms of rhetorical education through which students assimilate advocacy practices By examining how students learn to listen actively to clients and to recognize that clients have the right and ability to make decisions for themselves Britt shows that rhetorical education can succeed in producing legal professionals with the inclination and capacity to engage others whose values and experiences diverge from their own By investigating the deep relationship between legal education and rhetorical education Reimagining Advocacy calls for conversations and action that will improve advocacy for others especially for victims of domestic violence seeking assistance from legal professionals

Toward A Composition Made Whole Introduction

In today's digital age, the availability of Toward A Composition Made Whole books and manuals for download has revolutionized the way we access information. Gone are the days of physically flipping through pages and carrying heavy textbooks or manuals. With just a few clicks, we can now access a wealth of knowledge from the comfort of our own homes or on the go. This article will explore the advantages of Toward A Composition Made Whole books and manuals for download, along with some popular platforms that offer these resources. One of the significant advantages of Toward A Composition Made Whole books and manuals for download is the cost-saving aspect. Traditional books and manuals can be costly, especially if you need to purchase several of them for educational or professional purposes. By accessing Toward A Composition Made Whole versions, you eliminate the need to spend money on physical copies. This not only saves you money but also reduces the environmental impact associated with book production and transportation. Furthermore, Toward A Composition Made Whole books and manuals for download are incredibly convenient. With just a computer or smartphone and an internet connection, you can access a vast library of resources on any subject imaginable. Whether you're a student looking for textbooks, a professional seeking industry-specific manuals, or someone interested in self-improvement, these digital resources provide an efficient and accessible means of acquiring knowledge. Moreover, PDF books and manuals offer a range of benefits compared to other digital formats. PDF files are designed to retain their formatting regardless of the device used to open them. This ensures that the content appears exactly as intended by the author, with no loss of formatting or missing graphics. Additionally, PDF files can be easily annotated, bookmarked, and searched for specific terms, making them highly practical for studying or referencing. When it comes to accessing Toward A Composition Made Whole books and manuals, several platforms offer an extensive collection of resources. One such platform is Project Gutenberg, a nonprofit organization that provides over 60,000 free eBooks. These books are primarily in the public domain, meaning they can be freely distributed and downloaded. Project Gutenberg offers a wide range of classic literature, making it an excellent resource for literature enthusiasts. Another popular platform for Toward A Composition Made Whole books and manuals is Open Library. Open Library is an initiative of the Internet Archive, a non-profit organization dedicated to digitizing cultural artifacts and making them accessible to the public. Open Library hosts millions of books, including both public domain works and contemporary titles. It also allows users to borrow digital copies of certain books for a limited period, similar to a library lending system. Additionally, many universities and educational institutions have their own digital libraries that provide free access to PDF books and manuals. These libraries often offer academic texts, research papers, and technical manuals, making them invaluable resources for students and researchers. Some notable examples include MIT OpenCourseWare, which offers free access to course materials from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and the Digital Public Library of America, which provides a vast collection of digitized books and historical documents. In conclusion, Toward A Composition Made Whole books and manuals for download have transformed the way we access information. They provide a cost-effective and convenient means of acquiring knowledge, offering the ability to access a vast library of resources at our fingertips. With platforms like Project Gutenberg, Open Library, and various digital libraries offered by educational institutions, we have access to an ever-expanding collection of books and manuals. Whether for educational, professional, or personal purposes, these digital resources serve as valuable tools for continuous learning and self-improvement. So why not take advantage of the vast world of Toward A Composition Made Whole books and manuals for download and embark on your journey of knowledge?
