Driving the Dragon Mark Andrews, 2025-04-15. China is now at the forefront of electric vehicle adoption and a wave of Chinese manufactured cars is now hitting Europe and the West. As the world's largest car producer since 2008, China's automotive industry deserves a closer look. Driving the Dragon explores the history of Chinese car manufacture, looking at some of the important cars on that journey, the false starts and missed opportunities. The story begins with the Rover 75 and how it played a key role in moving the Chinese car industry forward. It concludes with a look at cars from the likes of BYD, Zeekr and Nio which are becoming mainstream in the UK and Europe as some of the most competitive electric vehicles on the market, not just in terms of price but also performance and desirability. For many people, China is still a very enigmatic country, not helped by recent political events. While the book focuses on the automotive industry, it also looks at the country itself and examines the culture surrounding the industry. The author spent 30 years in China teaching test driving and reviewing Chinese cars and writing while witnessing first hand the extraordinary growth of the Chinese car industry.

To Be a Man Is Not a One-Day Job Daniel Jordan

Smith, 2017-11-24 Refrains about financial hardship are ubiquitous in contemporary Nigeria frequently expressed through the idiom to be a man is not a one day job But while men talk constantly about money underlying their economic worries are broader concerns about the shifting meanings of masculinity amid changing expectations and practices of intimacy Drawing on twenty five years of experience in southeastern Nigeria Daniel Jordan Smith takes readers through the principal phases and arenas of men s lives the transition to adulthood searching for work and making a living courtship marriage and fatherhood fraternal and political relationships and finally the attainment of elder status and death He relates men s struggles both to fulfill their own aspirations and to meet society s expectations He also considers men who behave badly mistreat their wives and children or resort to crime and violence All of these men face similar challenges as they navigate the complex geometry of money and intimacy Unraveling these connections Smith argues provides us with a deeper understanding of both masculinity and society in Nigeria     Paperbacks in Print ,1975     Focus On: 100 Most Popular Sedans Wikipedia contributors,     Focus On: 100 Most Popular Station Wagons Wikipedia contributors,
