The Role of Flower Color in Angiosperm Evolution Montserrat Arista, Eduardo Narbona, Justen Whittall, Mani Shrestha, Maria Gabriela Gutierrez Camargo, 2021-11-05

State-permeated Capitalism in Large Emerging Economies Andreas Nölke, Tobias ten Brink, Christian May, Simone Claar, 2019-08-30 This book systematically analyzes the economic dynamics of large emerging economies from an extended Comparative Capitalisms perspective Coining the phrase state permeated capitalism the authors shift the focus of research from economic policy alone towards the real world of corporate and state behaviour On the basis of four empirical case studies Brazil India China South Africa the main drivers for robust economic growth in these countries from the 2000s until the 2010s are revealed These are found in particular in mutual institutional compatibilities of state permeated capitalism in their large domestic markets and beneficial global economic constellations Differences in their institutional arrangements are explored to explain why China and India have been more economically successful than Brazil and South Africa The authors highlight substantial challenges for the stability of state permeated capitalism and assess the potential future growth sustainability and likely pitfalls for these large emerging economies Opening further avenues for empirical and theoretical research this book raises questions for the future of the global economic order and should appeal to academics graduate students and advanced undergraduates in politics economics economic sociology and development studies It should also prove a worthwhile and provocative read for development practitioners and policy makers

Extended Curriculum Programmes Tennyson Mgutshini,2022-04-30 The introduction of ECPs in South African Universities is seen by many as South Africa s key strategy for addressing the problem of poor patterns of student success and has its basis on the uncontested acceptance that an extended study duration may be necessary to bring some categories of learners to a level of parity with the readiness expectations of their course of study Even so this transformative strategic imperative has been plagued by a range of challenges that include poor systems readiness poor selection mechanisms in the identification of ECP students poor numeracy and literacy amongst students and indifferent teacher involvement in ECPs This volume offers a rare insight into many of the above recognised challenges and in so doing provides critical matter for thought for educators within the higher education sector
