Legitimacy in International Law Rüdiger Wolfrum,Volker Röben,2008-02-26 In recent years the question of the legitimacy of international law has been discussed quite intensively Such questions are for example whether international law lacks legitimacy in general whether international law or a part of it has yielded to the facts of power whether adherence to international legal commitments should be subordinated to self defined national interests whether international law or particular rules of it such as the prohibition of the use of armed force have lost their ability to induce compliance compliance pull and what is the relevance of non enforcement or failure to obey for the legitimacy of that particular international norm This book contains fresh perspectives on these questions offered at an international and interdisciplinary conference hosted by the Max Planck Institute for Comparative Law and International Law

Coetsee,Francois P. Viljoen,2023-08-31 Prayer is a major topic within Christian theology The biblical text has various references to various recorded and reported prayers In fact references to prayer are found within the rich diversity of the various books corpora and genres of Scripture As can be expected much has been written about prayer in the biblical text However a comprehensive Biblical Theology dealing with the concept of prayer in Scripture has not been published before and this book intends to fill this gap assuming that such an approach can provide a valuable contribution to the theological discourse on prayer and related concepts This book aims to investigate prayer and its related elements including worship praise thanksgiving adoration petition intercession lament and confession in the Old Testament on a book by book or corpus by corpus basis The investigation follows a Biblical Theological approach reading the Old Testament on a book by book basis in its final form to uncover the Old Testament s overarching theology of prayer understanding the parts in relation to the whole By doing this the discrete nuances of the prayers of the different Old Testament books and corpora can be uncovered letting the books and corpora speak for themselves In addition the advantage of this approach is that it provides findings that can benefit the modern Christian community and contribute to the practice of Reformed theology in Africa This book is of significant value to scholars It will inspire scholars to think about prayer and use the Bible as the major prayer handbook in their spiritual lives Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1916

Farming in South Africa ,1926 Crossing Borders, Dissolving Boundaries Hein Viljoen,2013 Borders separate but also connect self and other and literary texts not only enact these bordering processes but form part of such processes This book gestures towards a borderless world stepping as it were with thousand mile boots from south to north even across the Atlantic from South Africa to Scandinavia It also shows how literary texts model and remodel borders and bordering processes in rich and meaningful local contexts The essays assembled here analyse the crossing and negotiation of borders and boundaries in works by Nadine Gordimer Ingrid Winterbach Deneyse Reitz Janet Suzman Marlene van Niekerk A S Byatt Thomas Harris Frank A Janssen Eben Venter Antjie Krog and others under different signs or conceptual points of attraction These signs include a spiritual turn eventfulness self understanding ethnic and linguistic mobilization performative chronotopes the grotesque the carceral the rhetorical and the interstitial Contributors Ileana Dimitriu Heilna du Plooy John Gouws Anne Heith Lida Kruger Susan Meyer Adle Nel Ellen Rees Johan Schimanski Tony Ulliyatt Phil van Schalkwyk Hein Viljoen The Diffusion of Law Sue Farran,James Gallen,Christa Rautenbach,2016-03-09 In considering diffusion from a global perspective this book provides timely new insights into its application in a variety of fields and at many levels of both legal and non legal orderings This collection contributes to the wider theoretical debate concerning the movement of law and legal norms by engaging with concrete examples of legal diffusion in jurisdictions as diverse as Albania the Czech Republic Poland and Kuwait These examples taken together provide a comprehensive illustration of the theoretical debates concerning the diffusion of laws and norms in terms of both process and form This international multi disciplinary and multi methodological volume brings together scholars from law and social science with experience in mixed and hybrid jurisdictions and advances the conversation about legal and normative diffusion across the academy It represents a robust challenge to many preconceived ideas about legal movement and as such will be of interest to academics and students working in the fields of Law Sociology Anthropology Political Science Legal Education and comparative method
