University Of Pretoria 2014 Prospectus:

The Strategic Repositioning of Arts, Culture and Heritage in the 21st Century George Mugovhani, Owen Seda, 2018-06-11

The post millennium world has been experiencing several recognisable historical milestones with regard to arts culture and heritage One of these has been the resuscitation and revival of creative elements of the arts culture and heritage of previously marginalised or disadvantaged communities around the world Until recently there had been scant regard and skewed allocation of resources for these but lately attempts have been made to promote and sustain them in order to enable the socio economic aspirations of a multicultural society The contributions brought together here are the product of papers that were presented during a conference on Strategic Repositioning of Arts Culture and Heritage in the 21st Century They cover a broad spectrum of subjects such as indigeneity music song and identity politics national reconciliation education product development and national development

Supporting Multiculturalism and Gender Diversity in University Settings Zhou, Molly Y., 2015-03-31 Despite modern technology and the focus on international business striving to make the world a smaller place many organizations still struggle with the need for diversity and multiculturalism This issue is also present in academia as women of color and those previously perceived to be in the ethnic minority continue the journey to become the educators and leaders that universities need Supporting Multiculturalism and Gender Diversity in University Settings examines the experiences of some of these female leaders and what they learned in their rise through education and academia Highlighting stories of feminism race and what it means to use these life lessons in the classroom this book is a valuable resource for higher education administrators policymakers and women professionals everywhere

From #RhodesMustFall Movements to #HumansMustFall Movements Artwell Nhemachena, Jairo Kangira, 2021-05-14 Might it be possible that the world is being migrated into an era where the imperial periphery will be increasingly governed through Artificial Intelligence AI and robotics designed to replace human beings Celebrated as efficient strong unfailing tireless precise and beyond corruption AI and robots are set to replace African leaders who are imperially deemed to be and consistently condemned as corrupt failed weak and inefficient But if these AI and robots are neo imperial tools and machinations the million dollar question is whether empire is not returning to recolonise the supposedly inefficient Africans via the new technologies and machinism Where Africans once celebrated their liberation war movements empire has emplaced what it calls liberation technologies designed to supposedly liberate African youths from their own states and governments led by liberation movements Where Africans once celebrated their liberation war movements empire has placed its own NGOs CSOs spewing liberal ideologies designed to ostensibly liberate African youths from their own supposedly failed and corrupt states and government leaders With African youths citizens allying not with their liberation movements but with the liberation technologies and liberal NGOs CSOs it is not surprising why African citizens oppose their states led Fast Track Land Redistribution Programmes while ironically they happily celebrate Fast Tracked COVID 19 Vaccines Positing the notion of Humans Must Fall movements this book underscores ways in which empire is in a process of eternal return to 21st century Africa The book is crucial for scholars and activists in political science government studies sociology anthropology cultural studies history languages and communication studies security studies military studies and development studies

From Student to Urban Planner Tuna Taşan-Kok, Mark Oranje, 2017-12-06 For many young planners the noble intentions with going to planning school seem starkly out of place in the neoliberal worlds they have come to inhabit For some the huge gap between the power they thought they would have and what they actually do is not only worrying but also deeply discouraging But for some others practice means finding practical and creative solutions to overcome challenges and complexities How do young planners in different settings respond to seemingly similar situations like these What do they do give up adjust or fight back What role did their planning education play and could it have helped in preparing and assisting them to respond to the world they are encountering In this edited volume stories of young planners from sixteen countries that engage these questions are presented The sixteen cases range from settings with older established planning systems e g USA the Netherlands and the UK to settings where the system is less set e g Brazil being remodeled e g South Africa and Bosnia Herzegovina and under stress e g Turkey and Poland Each chapter explores what might be done differently to prepare young planners for the complexities and challenges of their real worlds This book not only points out what is absent but also offers planning educators an alternative vision The editors and esteemed contributors provide reflections and suggestions as to how this new generation of young planners can be supported to survive in embrace and change the world they are encountering and in the spirit of planning endeavor to change it for the better

Sustainable Urban Futures in Africa Michael Addaney, Patrick Cobbinah, 2021-12-30 Sustainable Urban Futures in Africa provides a variety of conventional and emerging theoretical frameworks to inform understandings and responses to critical urban development issues such as urbanisation climate change housing slum informality urban sprawl urban ecosystem services and urban poverty among others within the context of the sustainable development goals SDGs in Africa This book addresses topics including challenges to spatial urban development how spatial planning is delivered how different urbanisation variables influence the development of different forms of urban systems and settlements in Africa how city authorities could use old and new methods of land administration to produce sustainable urban spaces in Africa and the role of local activism is causing important changes in the built environment Chapters are written by a diverse range of African scholars and practitioners in urban planning and policy design environmental science and policy sociology agriculture natural resources management environmental law and politics Urban Africa has huge resource potential both human and natural resources that can stimulate sustainable development when effectively harnessed Sustainable Urban Futures in Africa provides support for the SDGs in urban Africa and will be of interest to students and researchers professionals and policymakers and readers of urban studies spatial planning geography governance and other social sciences Integrating Predation Risk Across

Scales: From Neurons to Ecosystems and Milliseconds to Generations Jacqueline Jeannette Blundell,Evan Preisser,2020-06-04 Uprooting University Apartheid in South Africa Teresa A. Barnes,2018-12-07 South Africa continues to be an object of fascination for people everywhere interested in social justice issues postcolonial studies and critical race theory as manifested by the enormous worldwide attention given to the RhodesMustFall movement In this book Teresa Barnes examines universities complex positioning in the apartheid era and argues that tracing the institutional legacies left by pro apartheid intellectuals are crucial to understanding the fight to transform South African higher education A work of interpretive social history this book investigates three historical dynamics in the relationship between the apartheid system and South African higher education First it explores how the legitimacy of apartheid was historically reproduced in public higher education Second it looks at ways that academics maneuvered through and influenced national and international discourses of political freedom and legitimacy Third it explores how and where stubborn tendrils of apartheid era knowledge production practices survived into and have been combatted during the democratic era in South African universities

Recalibrating teacher training in African higher education institutions Sifiso Sibanda,Gideon (Deon) P. van Tonder,Washington T. Dudu,2023-03-01 This book critically examines the role of governments in promoting parity during and in post pandemic education This comes from the realisation that the pandemic has deepened the crisis by depleting the meagre resources that African countries might have devoted to normative educational practices where those on the margins would have been pushed further behind while the privileged would have been further initiated into the cultural and capital flows of private schools and historically research intensive institutions of higher learning This has far reaching implications for the education of underprivileged citizens and education particularly modes and modalities of delivery has to be reimagined to subvert the challenges wrought by the pandemic This book significantly bridges the gap between the pre and post COVID 19 pandemic pedagogical practices and the erstwhile modalities that have been resilient over time The book focuses on ways to stave off pedagogical challenges that face countries as the global pandemic makes its mark Urban Transport XXI C.A. Brebbia,J.L. Miralles i Garcia,V. de Esteban Chapapria,2015-06-02 Urban Transport XXI contains the proceedings of the 21st International Conference on Urban Transport and the Environment The series of annual conferences organised by the Wessex Institute was first held in 1995 Transportation in urban areas with its related environmental and social impacts is a topic of significant concern for policymakers in both municipal and central government and for the urban citizens who need effective and efficient transport systems Urban transport systems require considerable studies to devise and then safeguard their operational use maintenance and safety Transportation systems produce significant environmental impacts and can enhance or degrade the quality of life in urban centres Clearly the challenge of providing effective and efficient transport systems in urban settings remains an acute concern with financial political and environmental constraints limiting the ability of transport system planners and operators to deliver the high quality outcomes expected by the public Papers cover such topics as Urban Transport Planning and Management Urban Transport Strategies Public Transport Systems Environmental Aspects Economic and Social Impact Safety and Security Travel Behaviour Studies Customer Satisfaction Transportation Modelling and Simulation Infrastructure Development Intelligent and Advanced Transport Systems Transportation Integration City Logistics Resilience and Inter modal Transport Systems Mass Transport Strategies Social Impacts Freight Transport Railway Systems Transport Governance and Administration Port and City Mobility and Public Space Life Cycle Management
