South African Journal of Science , 2008

Social Work in Social Change Nicci Earle, 2008 This study forms part of a series of studies on professions and professional education being conducted by the HSRC s research programme on Education Science Skills Development It follows a pilot study on medical doctors published in 2006 entitled Doctors in a Divided Society The profession and education of medical practitioners in South Africa Like the other studies in the series this study involved developing an understanding of the professional milieu and professional labour market of social workers As the implementers of government social policy social work professionals have been at the forefront of grappling with the practicalities of the changes in focus approach and methods of social security and social service delivery since 1994 It examines developments in the education and training of social workers within the democratic dispensation the most significant of which is the development of a national standardised Bachelor of Social Work degree The study also reveals that the dominant profile in student enrolment and graduation statistics has changed from white female to African female and that enrolment has increased significantly However the study also shows that graduation trends have been negative and losses due to emigration are an additional concern Given the scarcity of these professionals against the demand for their services understanding the factors that contribute to this picture are critical to effective intervention

Newsletter for Sub-Saharan Africa , Guide to Secondary Schools in Kenya , Nutrition Abstracts and Reviews ,2006 Mathematics Today ,1998 Principles of Medicine in Africa David Mabey,Geoffrey Gill,Eldryd Parry,Martin W. Weber,Christopher J. M. Whitty,2013-01-17 Principles of Medicine in Africa combines classical clinical medicine with a rich understanding of the major environmental and cultural influences on health and disease providing comprehensive guidance for anyone intending to practise medicine in Africa Disease is presented in the context of family and culture and the effects of inequality and problems of limited resources are addressed The authors have a wealth of experience in front line healthcare and provide practical evidence based management guidelines for all the common and less common conditions likely to be encountered This fourth edition has been thoroughly updated to incorporate the latest research findings and management guidelines It includes an expanded section on maternal and child health but careful editing has generated a slimmer volume whilst retaining all of the essential content This is the one essential text for medical students and healthcare professionals wanting a complete and up to date reference book on medicine in Africa
