Stephan de Beer

University Of Pretoria 2015 2016:

Clown of the City Stephan de Beer, 2020-11-25 At opening this book everything one has learned or thought about urban ministry is challenged and changed Stephan de Beer offers a fresh exciting and thoroughly engaging approach The title is enticing and playful but the book is a serious grappling with the daunting realities of a shadowed marginalised urban life It does not theorise or pontificate about a concept The author is not a distant neutral observer He is an engaged minister to the people a struggler in their struggles prophet to the powerful This book invites the reader to join the people of the cities under siege by failed policies empty promises and disastrous politics in their struggles for meaningful life and it makes a powerful persuasive case Stephan de Beer has offered us a great gift and a wonderful opportunity to think and hope anew and differently about the life reality and future of the city

Higher Education in the Next Decade, 2021-05-25 This volume is already the 50th in the book series Global Perspectives on Higher Education In this book the editors and authors paid special attention to this important anniversary The 50th volume in the book series Global Perspectives on Higher Education offers a stimulating and thoughtful assessment of higher education from a global perspective which addresses the challenges and prospects for the next decade The challenges now faced by higher education and its likely future prospects and patterns are examined in terms of policy papers and case studies Five broad topics are considered the situation of academic faculty the demand for access the role of the university in society and its governance funding trends and higher education s international dimensions The volume brings together as authors fourteen of the thirty participants of the Fulbright New Century Scholars 2005 2006 program whose research addressed the topic of Higher Education in the 21st Century Global Challenge and National Response and was published in a volume edited by the program leaders Philip G Altbach and Patti McGill Peterson Higher Education in the New Century Global Challenges and Innovative Ideas 2007 The present book not only continues the examination and assessment of current global trends in higher education but also bears witness to the enduring power of Senator Fulbright s vision of furthering mutual international understanding and offering collaborative study opportunities which extend the frontiers of knowledge

Civil Strife against Local Governance Sethulego Matebesi, 2017-03-13 Hardly a day goes by without South Africans going on a rampage over the provision of basic municipal services such as water electricity sanitation and other municipal obligations This book connects the critical issue of community protests to the equally precarious issue of political trust in local governance in South Africa by using comparative analysis of grassroots activism in predominantly black communities and predominantly white communities

Faith, Race and Inequality amongst Young Adults in South Africa Nadine Bowers Du Toit, 2022 For many young South African adults often called born frees who were born just before or just after the demise of political apartheid the ongoing realities of poverty and inequality bring to light the question of whether they truly are free in contemporary South Africa Their lived experiences of poverty and inequality seem to be in conflict with theologically laden concepts that remain prominent in social and political life such as reconciliation forgiveness justice and restitution This leads to a bi directional process of contesting and being contested by such notions and discourses Furthermore in light of the double legacy of both the church and youth as resisting injustice this publication seeks to explore the many perspectives from which the Christian faith race and inequality amongst youth can be brought to light Theoretical Orientations and Practical Applications of Psychological Ownership Chantal Olckers,Llewellyn van Zyl,Leoni van der Vaart,2017-11-27 This book shares the theoretical advancements that have been made regarding psychological ownership since the development of the construct and specifically the practical applications within multi cultural and cross cultural environments Enriched by empirical data and case studies by subject specialists in the field this book serves as a cutting edge benchmark for human resource management specialists industrial psychologists as well as students in positive organizational psychology and professionals in other fields This book follows an in depth view of the most recent research trends in psychological ownership Offering practical tools of how the psychological ownership of employees could be developed in the workplace to not only enhance the performance of organisations but to increase the commitment of employees and influence the intentions of skilled employees to remain with their organisations

Boojihawon, 2020-11-09 Trade between China and Africa is increasing year on year while the West increasingly debates the nature and implications of China's presence Yet little research exists at the organizational and community levels While western press reporting is overwhelmingly negative African governments mostly welcome the Chinese presence But what happens at the management level How are Chinese organizations run What are they bringing to communities What is their impact on the local job market How do they manage staff How are they working with local firms This book seeks to provide a theoretical framework for understanding Chinese organizations and management in Africa and to explore how their interventions are playing out at the organizational and community levels in sub Saharan Africa Based on rigorous empirical research exploring emerging themes in specific African countries this book develops implications for management knowledge education and training provision and policy formulation Importantly it seeks to inform future scholarship on China's management impact in the world generally on Africa's future development and on international and cross cultural management scholarship Primarily aimed at scholars of international management with an interest in China and or in China in Africa this important book will also be of great interest to those working in the area of development studies international politics and international relations A Companion to African Literatures Olakunle George, 2021-03-22 Rediscover the diversity of modern African literatures with this authoritative resource edited by a leader in the field How have African literatures unfolded in their rich diversity in our modern era of decolonization nationalisms and extensive transnational movement of peoples How have African writers engaged urgent questions regarding race nation ethnicity gender and sexuality And how do African literary genres interrelate with traditional oral forms or audio visual and digital media A Companion to African Literatures addresses these issues and many more Consisting of essays by distinguished scholars and emerging leaders in the field this book offers rigorous deeply engaging discussions of African literatures on the continent and in diaspora It covers the four main geographical regions East and Central Africa North Africa Southern Africa and West Africa presenting ample material to learn from and think with A Companion To African Literatures is divided into five parts The first four cover different regions of the continent while the fifth part considers conceptual issues and newer directions of inquiry Chapters focus on literatures in European languages officially used in Africa English French and Portuguese as well as homegrown African languages Afrikaans Amharic Arabic Swahili and Yoruba With its lineup of lucid and authoritative analyses readers will find in A Companion to African Literatures a distinctive rewarding academic resource Perfect for undergraduate and graduate students in literary studies programs with an African focus A Companion to African Literatures will also earn a place in the libraries of teachers researchers and professors who wish to strengthen their background in the study of African literatures Power Shift? Political Leadership and Social Media David

Taras, Richard Davis, 2019-12-09 Power Shift Political Leadership and Social Media examines how political leaders have adapted to the challenges of social media including Facebook Instagram Twitter and memes among other means of persuasion Established political leaders now use social media to grab headlines respond to opponents fundraise contact voters directly and organize their election campaigns Leaders of protest movements have used social media to organize and galvanize grassroots support and to popularize new narratives narratives that challenge and sometimes overturn conventional thinking Yet each social media platform provides different affordances and different attributes and each is used differently by political leaders In this book leading international experts provide an unprecedented look at the role of social media in leadership today Through a series of case studies dealing with topics ranging from Emmanuel Macron and Donald Trump's use of Twitter to Justin Trudeau's use of selfies and Instagram to how feminist leaders mobilize against stereotypes and injustices the authors argue that many leaders have found additional avenues to communicate with the public and use power This raises the question of whether this is causing a power shift in the relationship between leaders and followers Together the chapters in this book suggest new rules of engagement that leaders ignore at their peril The lack of systematic theoretically informed and empirically supported analyses makes Power Shift Political Leadership and Social Media an indispensable read for students and scholars wishing to gain new understanding on what social media means for leadership

Institutional Research in South African Higher Education Jan Botha, Nicole J Muller, 2016-11-01 The book provides a thorough overview of Institutional Research IR i e applied higher education research undertaken within universities in South Africa It is a collection of essays focusing on the character and institutional setting of IR how IR is embedded into the mechanisms of steering shaping and reforming higher education and what the major results were of IR in select thematic areas The book is a valuable resource for higher education researchers and social researchers in South Africa interested in higher education It also deserves to be read by practitioners and policymakers in the field of higher education in South Africa It serves as an interesting case study for higher education researchers all over the world South Africa's Post-Apartheid

Military Lindy Heineken, 2020-01-01 This timely book examines how the South African National Defence Force has adapted to the country's new security political and social environment since 1994 In South Africa's changed political state how has civilian control of the military been implemented and what does this mean for defence in a democracy This book presents an overview of the security environment how the mission focus of the military has changed and the implications for force procurement force preparation force employment and force sustainability The author addresses other issues such as the effect of integrating former revolutionary soldiers into a professional armed force the effect of affirmative action on meritocracy recruitment and retention military veterans looking at the difficulties they face in reintegrating back into society and finding gainful employment gender equality and mainstreaming the rise of military unions and why a confrontational instead of a more corporatist approach to labour relations has emerged HIV AIDS and the consequences this holds for the military in terms of its operational effectiveness In closing the author highlights key events that have caused the SANDF to become lost in transition and transformation spelling out some lessons learned The conclusions she draws are pertinent for the future of defence security and civil military relations of countries around the world ICCWS 2016 11th International

Global Jurisprudential Apartheid in the Twenty-First Century Howard Tafara Chitimira, Artwell Nhemachena, Tapiwa Victor Warikandwa, 2021-09-27 In Global Jurisprudential Apartheid in the Twenty First Century Universalism and Particularism in International Law the contributors argue that the world is witnessing the formation of a global jurisprudential apartheid despite the promotion of democracy equality human rights and humanitarianism Examining organisations such as international criminal courts the World Trade Organisation the United Nations Security Council the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank the contributors unpack the challenges of global jurisprudential apartheid In particular they analyse the ways in which these organizations hold and contribute to the increasing inequalities between the Global North and the Global South Ultimately Global Jurisprudential Apartheid in the Twenty First Century shows that globalisation is a variant of the apartheid era particularism and not universalism working to advantage the Global North while disadvantaging the Global South under the pretense of humanitarianism

Decolonising Curricula and Pedagogy in Higher Education Shannon Morreira, Kathy Luckett, Siseko H. Kumalo, Manjeet Ramgotra, 2021-05-31 This book brings together voices from the Global South and Global North to think through what it means in practice to decolonise contemporary higher education Occasionally a theoretical concept arises in academic debate that cuts across individual disciplines Such concepts which may well have already been in use and debated for some time become suddenly newly and increasingly important at a particular historical juncture Right now debates around decolonisation are on the rise globally as we become increasingly aware that many of the old power imbalances brought into play by colonialism have not gone away in the present The authors in this volume bring theories of decoloniality into conversation with the structural cultural institutional relational and personal logics of curriculum pedagogy and teaching practice What is enabled in practice when academics set out to decolonize their teaching spaces What commonalities and differences are there where academics set out to do so in universities across disparate political and geographical spaces This book explores what is at stake when decolonial work is taken from the level of theory into actual practice The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Third World Thematics

for Whole Plant Physiology Mauro Centritto, 2017-07-04 Understanding plant responses to abiotic stresses is central to our ability to predict the impact of global change and environmental pollution on the production of food feed and forestry Besides increasing carbon dioxide concentration and rising global temperature increasingly frequent and severe climatic events e g extended droughts heat waves flooding are expected in the coming decades Additionally pollution e g heavy metals gaseous pollutants such as ozone or sulfur dioxide is an important factor in many regions decreasing plant productivity and product quality This Research topic focuses on stress responses at the level of whole plants addressing biomass related processes development of the root system root respiration fermentation leaf expansion stomatal regulation photosynthetic capacity leaf senescence yield and interactions between organs transport via xylem and phloem long distance signaling and secondary metabolites Comparisons between species and between varieties of the same species are helpful to evaluate the potential for species selection and genetic improvement This research topic is focused on the following abiotic stresses and interactions between them Increased carbon dioxide concentration in ambient air is an important parameter influenced by global change and affects photosynthesis stomatal regulation plant growth and finally yield Elevated temperature both the steady rise in average temperature and extreme events of shorter duration heat waves must be considered in the context of alterations in carbon balance through increased photorespiration decreased Rubisco activation and carboxylation efficiency damage to photosynthetic apparatus as well as loss of water via transpiration and stomatal sensitivity Low temperatures late frosts prolonged cold phases freezing temperature can decrease overwintering survival rates productivity of crop plants and species composition in meadows Water availability More frequent severe and extended drought periods have been predicted by climate change models The timing and duration of a drought period is crucial to determining plant responses particularly if the drought event coincides with an increase in temperature Drought causes stomatal closure decreasing the cooling potential of transpiration and potentially leading to thermal stress as leaf temperature rises Waterlogging may become also more relevant during the next decades and is especially important for seedlings and young plants It is not the presence of water itself that causes the stress but the exclusion of oxygen from the soil which causes a decrease in respiration and an increase in fermentation rates followed by a period of potential oxidative stress as water recedes Salinity high salt concentration in soil influences soil water potential the water status of the plant and hence affects productivity Salt tolerance will become an important trait driven by increased competition for land and the need to exploit marginal lands Understanding plant responses to abiotic stresses is central to our ability to predict the impact of global change and environmental pollution on the production of food feed and forestry Besides increasing carbon dioxide concentration and rising global temperature increasingly frequent and severe climatic events e g extended droughts heat waves flooding are expected in the coming decades Additionally pollution e g heavy metals gaseous pollutants such as ozone or sulfur dioxide is an important factor in many regions decreasing plant productivity and product quality This Research topic focuses on stress
