University Of Michigan Essay Questions 2013:

Maybe It's Me essays Eileen Pollack, 2022-01-25 Eileen is too smart for the third grade but when she gets a chance to be skipped ahead she fails the test The clownish school psychologist tries to gain her trust with an offer of Oreos but she refuses After all he is a stranger and might try to poison her This is the start of the author's love hate relationship with the rules as they were laid out for a girl in the 1960s and as they persist in some form today As she ascends through a physics degree at Yale that dashes her hopes for love and romance to a post graduate summer that leaves her peed on shot at and kidnapped to a marriage of supposed equals in which she is expected to do all the housework child rearing and bill paying and make sure the Roto Rooter guy arrives on time Pollack shares with poignant humor the trials of being smart and female in a world in which women are rarely appreciated for both their bodies and their minds Maybe It's Me is a question all women have asked themselves But Pollack's message will resonate with readers of all genders as a story of the very human search for connection love acceptance and self respect The author of the groundbreaking memoir The Only Woman in the Room Why Science Is Still a Boys Club Pollack proves that even in her sixties wiser and more bruised but no less hilarious she is still very much in the game Interpreting Susan Sontag's Essays Mark K. Fulk, 2021-04-13 Interpreting Susan Sontag's Essays Radical Contemplative offers its readers a scholarly examination of her essays within the context of philosophy and aesthetic theory This study sets up a dialogue between her works and their philosophical counterparts in France and Germany including the works of Hannah Arendt Jacques Derrida Roland Barthes and Walter Benjamin Artists and concepts discussed in relation to Sontag's essays include the works of Andy Warhol Pop Art French New Wave Cinema the music of John Cage and the cinematic art of Robert Bresson Leni Riefenstahl Ingmar Bergman and Jean Luc Godard Her aesthetic formalism is compared with Harold Bloom and this is the first volume to examine her late works and their position within the American events of 9 11 01 and the War on Terrorism The Professor of Immortality Eileen Pollack, 2019-10-01 A tragicomedy about the paradoxes of trying to be a decent human and maybe even trickier of trying to be a decent mom by the author of A Perfect Life Rivka Galchen author of Little Labors Professor Maxine Sayers once found her personal and professional life so fulfilling that she founded the Institute for Future Studies a program dedicated to studying the effects of technology on our culture and finding ways to prolong human life But when her beloved husband dies she is so devastated she can barely get out of bed To make matters worse her son Zach abruptly quit his job in Silicon Valley and has been out of contact for seven months But Maxine is jolted from her grief by her sudden realization that a favorite former student and a former close friend of her son might be a terrorist called the Technobomber and that Zach might either be involved in or has become a victim of this extremist's bombing Deserting her teaching responsibilities her ailing mother and an appealing suitor Maxine is compelled to set out in search of her son in order to warn and protect him even though she knows she should report her suspicions to the FBI to prevent greater carnage The Professor of Immortality is intimate and sweeping funny and terrifying and most of all dead on in its observations of what it means to want to know everything about people we love while still being frightened of what we might find out it s a detective story and a story of motherlove Eileen Pollack is a splendid writer Elizabeth McCracken author of Bowlaway In this exceptional novel Eileen Pollack writes with great immediacy about the impact of grief on a parent s perception of the world Tender wry full of unexpected revelations The Professor of Immortality gripped me from the first scene and the urgent questions it poses have stayed with me Idra Novey author of Those Who Knew First-Year University Writing L. Aull,2015-03-04 First Year Writing describes significant language patterns in college writing today how they are different from expert academic writing and how to inform teaching and assessment with corpus based linguistic and rhetorical genre analysis The Motherhood Affidavits Laura Jean Baker,2018-04-03 Laura Jean Baker has written a beautiful and brave memoir of motherhood and its discontents which are indistinguishable from its joys This is a warmly intimate yet intellectually provocative personal document of originality and considerable charm Joyce Carol Oates With the birth of her first child soon to be professor Laura Jean Baker finds herself electrified by oxytocin the love hormone the first effective antidote to her lifelong depression Over the next eight years her oxy cravings and her family only grow to the dismay of her husband Ryan a freelance public defender As her reckless baby making threatens her family s middle class existence Baker identifies more and more with Ryan s legal clients often drug addled fellow citizens of Oshkosh Wisconsin Is she any less desperate for her next fix Baker is in an impossible bind The same drive that sustains her endangers her family the cure is also the disease She explores this all too human paradox by threading her story through those of her local counterparts who ve run afoul of the law like Rob McNally the lovable junkie who keeps resurfacing in Ryan s life As Baker vividly reports on their alleged crimes theft kidnapping opioid abuse and even murder she unerringly conjures tenderness for the accused yet increasingly questions her own innocence Baker s ruthless self interrogation makes this her personal affidavit her sworn statement made for public record if not a court of law With a wrenching ending that compels us to ask whether Baker has fallen from maternal grace this is an extraordinary addition to the literature of motherhood World Cinema and the Essay Film Hollweg Brenda Hollweg,2019-05-29 World Cinema and the Essay Film examines the ways in which essay film practices are deployed by non Western filmmakers in specific local and national contexts in an interconnected world The book identifies the essay film as a political and ethical tool to reflect upon and potentially resist the multiple often contradictory effects of globalization With case studies of essayistic works by John Akomfrah Nguyen Trinh Thi and Apichatpong Weerasethakul amongst many others and with a photo essay by Trinh T Min ha and a discussion of Frances Calvert s work it expands current research on the essay film beyond canonical filmmakers and frameworks and presents transnational perspectives on what is becoming a global film practice Reading Ji Kang's Essays David Chai,2021-09-09 This is the first English language book on the philosophy of Ji Kang Moreover it offers the first systematic treatment of his philosophy thus filling a significant gap in English language scholarship on early medieval

Chinese literature and philosophy David Chai brings to light Ji Kang's Neo Daoist heritage and explores the themes in his writings that were derived from classical Daoism most notably the need for humanity to return to a more harmonious coexistence with Nature to further our own self understanding His analysis is unique in that it balances translation and annotation with expositing the creative philosophizing of Neo Daoism Chai analyzes the entirety of Ji Kang's essays exploring his philosophical reflections on music aesthetics ethics self cultivation and fate Reading Ji Kang's Essays will be of interest to scholars and students of Chinese philosophy and literature It offers the first comprehensive philosophical examination of a heretofore neglected figure in Neo Daoism

Essays on the Essay Film

Nora M. Alter, Timothy Corrigan, 2017-03-14 The essay with its emphasis on the provisional and explorative rather than on definitive statements has evolved from its literary beginnings and is now found in all mediums including film Today the essay film is arguably one of the most widely acclaimed and critically discussed forms of filmmaking around the world with practitioners such as Chris Marker Hito Steyerl Errol Morris Trinh T Minh ha and Rithy Panh Characteristics of the essay film include the blending of fact and fiction the mixing of art and documentary film styles the foregrounding of subjective points of view a concentration on public life a tension between acoustic and visual discourses and a dialogic encounter with audiences This anthology of fundamental statements on the essay film offers a range of crucial historical and philosophical perspectives It provides early critical articulations of the essay film as it evolved through the 1950s and 1960s key contemporary scholarly essays and a selection of writings by essay filmmakers It features texts on the foundations of the essay film by writers such as Hans Richter and Andr Bazin contemporary positions by among others Phillip Lopate and Michael Renov and original essays by filmmakers themselves including Laura Mulvey and Isaac Julien

Sterne, Tristram, Yorick

Melvyn New, Peter de Voogd, Judith Hawley, 2015-11-12 Sterne Tristram Yorick Tercentenary Essays on Laurence Sterne derives from the Laurence

Sterne Tercentenary Conference held at Royal Holloway University of London on July 8 11 2013 It was attended by some eighty scholars from fourteen countries the conference heard more than sixty papers The organizers invited participants to submit revised versions of their contributions for this volume and the thirteen selected exhibit it is hoped the defining features both of the conference and of Sterne studies at the beginning of the twenty first century It is worth remarking that the selected authors represent seven countries that Sterne may well be the most internationally accepted of all eighteenth century English authors is certainly a claim worthy of a sentimental traveler This collection recognizes three faces of Sterne beginning with several biographical essays examining respectively his celebrity status family life politics and philosophy The second face is that of Tristram studied from vantage points provided by ethics linguistics gender studies and comparative literature The final group of essays examines the face of Yorick as the protagonist of A Sentimental Journey beginning with an ethnographic study of relationships moving through questions of identity and concluding with the possible future of literary studies a return to aesthetics

Why the Humanities Matter Today Lee Trepanier, 2017-03-08 The humanities in American higher education is in a state of crisis with declining student enrollment fewer faculty positions and diminishing public prestige Instead of recycling old arguments that have lost their appeal the humanities must discover and articulate new rationales for their value to students faculty administrators and the public Why the Humanities Matter Today In Defense of Liberal Education is an attempt to do so by having philosophers literature and foreign language professors historians and political theorists defend the value and explain the worth of their respective disciplines as well as illuminate the importance of liberal education By setting forth new arguments about the significance of their disciplines these scholars show how the humanities can reclaim its place of prominence in American higher education

Illegitimate Freedom Gaurav Majumdar, 2021-10-25 Illegitimate Freedom Informality in Modernist Literature 1900 1940 is the first study of informality in modernist literature Differentiating informality from intimacy in its introduction the book discusses the informal in relation with sensory experience aesthetic presentation ethical deliberation or action and social attitudes within modernist works It examines these works for particular nuances of the word informality in each of its chapters in the following thematic sequence informality that offers humour interpretive freedom and promiscuity as counters to self absorption in works by Virginia Woolf rebuttals to male priorities in liberalism through feminine informality in several short stories by Katherine Mansfield contempt for colloquialism and intimacy tinged with class anxieties and crises of attitude in T S Eliot s poetry resistance to disgust in James Joyce s novels and the fusion of irreverence protest and praise in W H Auden s writings before 1940 The book s conclusion considers the risks of informality through a discussion of what it calls inverted dignity The theoretical aspects of the book offer insights into Lockean liberalism the ethical dimensions of what H l ne Cixous termed feminine writing relations of sublimity and domesticity Sigmund Freud s arguments on humour and melancholia and recent affect theory s as well as Immanuel Kant s and Friedrich Nietzsche s views on disgust linking these with modernism This

Contemporary Adulthood and the Night-Time Economy O. Smith, 2014-07-22 This book examines the experiences of those dedicated drinkers at the forefront of the new night time leisure industries that revolutionized the way we think about our city centres Smith uses the night time leisure economy as a lens through which to view the relationship between global consumer capital and the erosion of traditional adulthood

A Pluralist Theory of the Mind David Ludwig, 2015-10-22 This book challenges common debates in philosophy of mind by questioning the framework of placement problems in contemporary metaphysics The author argues that placement problems arise when exactly one fundamental ontology serves as the base for all entities and will propose a pluralist alternative that takes the diversity of our conceptual resources and ontologies seriously This general pluralist account is applied to issues in philosophy of mind to argue that contemporary debates about the mind body problem are built on this problematic framework of placement problems The starting point is the plurality of ontologies in scientific practice Not only can we describe the world in terms of physical biological or psychological ontologies but any serious engagement with scientific ontologies will identify more specific ontologies in each domain For example there is not one unified ontology for biology but rather a diversity of scientific specializations with different ontological needs Based on this account of scientific practice the author argues that there is no reason to assume that ontological unification must be possible everywhere Without this ideal the scope of ontological unification turns out to be an open empirical question and there is no need to present unification failures as philosophically puzzling placement problems
