Dr Barbara Endicott Popovsky

University Of Pretoria Application Forms 2015:

Land Law and Urban Policy in Context Thanos Zartaloudis, 2016-10-14 This book is a collection of essays honouring and engaging with the work of the late Professor Patrick McAuslan. It is a collection that narrates analyses and critiques McAuslan's contributions as well as offering substantive perspectives on how his work has impacted the legal fields in which he was involved including those of land law, urban planning law and policy, land use and participation in developing countries, democratic constitutionalism and legal education. The essays present McAuslan's contributions in the contexts in which they emerged and according to both the circumstances and motivations that shaped them as well as the challenges they encountered. It thus provides an ideal point of engagement for scholars, students and policy makers that have already interacted with McAuslan's ideas and work or who have yet to do so. Open and Distance Education in Asia, Africa and the Middle East Olaf Zawacki-Richter, Adnan Qayyum, 2019-02-18 This book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license. This book describes the history, structure and institutions of open and distance education in six countries: China, India, Russia, Turkey, South Africa and South Korea. It describes how open and distance education is evolving in a digital age to reflect the needs and circumstances of the national higher education systems in these countries. It also explores the similarities and differences between how their open and distance higher education systems are managed and structured. This book is the second in a series following Open and Distance Education in Australia, Europe and the Americas Springer 2018. Both books compare and draw conclusions about the nature of open and distance education in the context of various national higher education systems. In a digital era characterized by the growing use of online open and distance education, this book will prove particularly valuable for policy makers and senior administrators who want to learn about establishing or expanding open and distance education services. In addition, it offers a valuable reference guide for researchers, academics and students interested in understanding the different approaches to open and distance education. International symposium on performance science 2021 Aaron Williamon, Isabelle Cossette, Krzysztof Paweł Dąbrowski, Solange Glasser, Isabelle Héroux, Fabrice Marandola, Laura A. Stambaugh, 2023-04-18 ICCSM2015-3rd International Conference on Cloud Security and Management Dr Barbara Endicott Popovsky, 2015-10 The 3rd International Conference on Cloud Security Management ICCSM 2015 invites researchers, practitioners and academics to present their research findings, works in progress, case studies and conceptual advances in areas of work where education and technology intersect. The conference brings together varied groups of people with different perspectives, experiences and knowledge in one location. It aims to help practitioners find ways of putting research into practice and researchers to gain an understanding of real-world problems, needs and aspirations. Hydropolitics, Interest Groups and Governance Richard Meissner, 2016-06-17 This book investigates the role that interest groups have played over the years in influencing the government of Namibia, the World Bank, the European Union and project implementation authorities to not construct the proposed Epupa Hydroelectric Power

Station on the Kunene River in the Baynes mountains a region on the border between Namibia and Angola Some of the issues brought forward by the interest groups are the socio economic impact the dam would have on the OvaHimba as well as negative consequences for the river s aquatic and terrestrial environment This book argues that interest groups and individuals have the ability to influence the above mentioned institutions and to such an extent that water politics and governance are not exclusively the domain of state institutions As such it argues that communal interest groups living in remote parts of the world can influence state institutions at various political scales

European Yearbook of Constitutional Law 2020 Ernst Hirsch Ballin, Gerhard van der Schyff, Maarten Stremmer, Maartje De Visser, 2021-03-27 The European Yearbook of Constitutional Law EYCL is an annual publication devoted to the study of constitutional law It aims to provide a forum for in depth analysis and discussion of new developments in the field both in Europe and beyond This second volume examines the constitutional positioning of cities across space and time Unrelenting urbanisation means that most people are or soon will be living in cities and that city administrations become in many respects their quintessential governing units Cities are places where State power is operationalised and concretised where laws and government policies transform from parchment objectives to practical realities In a similar vein cities are also places for the realisation of the constitutional rights and liberties enjoyed by individuals The book is organised around three sets of relations that await further unpacking in theory as well as practice that between cities and other institutions in the national constitutional architecture that between cities and their inhabitants and that between cities and international organisations The contributions to this book show the marked diversity in the role and powers available to cities in Europe and beyond and identify principles and approaches to help stipulate new ways of thinking about the legal role and relevance of cities going forward Ernst Hirsch Ballin is distinguished university professor at Tilburg University and vice dean for research of Tilburg Law School Gerhard van der Schyff is associate professor at Tilburg Law School Department of Public Law and Governance Maarten Stremmer is lecturer at Maastricht University Faculty of Law Department of Public Law Maartje De Visser is associate professor at SMU School of Law Singapore

Proceedings of the International Conference on Business and Management Dynamics 2016: Sustainable economies in the information economy Joy E. Akahome, Michael Twum-Darko, Cyril Ogbokor, Nyaniso Mfusi Zonke, T. Sethibe, R. Steyn, Esme Mohammed, Renier Steyn, L.B. Nguenang, Mamorena Lucia Matsoso, Henry N. Ozuru, Julius Akaba, Patient Rambe, Edem Korku Agbobli, Henri-Vincent Ndjave-Ndjoy, Regis Muchemwa, Andre de la Harpe, Konosoang Mpiti, Ayodeji Afolayan, 2016-12-31 Cape Town South Africa 7 Sept 2016 8 Sept 2016 Theme Sustainable economies in the information economy Purpose To share the quality academic papers presented at the International Conference on Business and Management Dynamics ICBMD held from 7 to 8 September 2016 at African Pride Crystal Hotel and Spa in Cape Town As grey literature the proceedings are the contributions made by researchers at the conference and are considered the written record of the work that was presented to fellow conference delegates Methodology The methodology used varies from researcher to researcher but are suitable for the studies conducted Thus on the one hand studies that were subjective in nature used the interpretive paradigm where the qualitative approach adopted made use of the interview method to collect data On the other hand studies that were objectively inclined adopted the positivist philosophy and used survey questionnaires to collect data However there were some academic papers which used mixed methodology because of the nature of the study Whatever methodology used adhered to the ethos of the philosophies underpinning the methodology Contribution made to scholarship The articles come from individual researchers and each article in the proceedings is unique Mostly there is no general argument leading from one contribution to the next However it is interesting to note that in the area of economic performance it was evident that real exchange rate and net foreign direct investment contribute more towards innovations in economic growth With regard to human capital development papers presented evidence that there exists a definite need to explore the phenomenon of personal branding as limited scientific academic research has been done within the field of personal branding or on elements of the topic. Thus the outcome argues that personal branding has an influence on leadership style which in turn impacts on organisational performance and related hygiene factors. Furthermore it was demonstrated that current methods or strategies for enforcing institutionalisation of knowledge sharing within an organisation have not been successful and as such new strategies are needed to reinforce efforts to nurture and invigorate the institutionalisation of knowledge sharing within an organisation. With regard to technology and big data impact on organisational performance it was evident that system performance, memory consumption and CPU utilisation can be used as criteria to compare and evaluate big data technologies to improve organisational performance. Most of the articles contribution reemphasised technology education and training as a means of digitising business and improving effectiveness. Target audience: The target readership is academic researchers and business leaders who require access to the latest developments in the fields of economics, information management, business education, development studies, social sciences and technology. It is also for policymakers and other stakeholders who need a better understanding of the impact of new developments on existing policies and regulations for their review or amendment.

Urban Form and Accessibility Corinne Mulley, John D. Nelson, 2020-12-02. The growth of global urbanization places great strains on energy, transportation, housing and public spaces needs. As such, transport and land use are inextricably linked. Urban Form and Accessibility: Social, Economic and Environmental Impacts consolidates key insights from multidisciplinary perspectives on the relationship between urban form and transportation planning. Synthesizing the latest cutting edge research, the book translates academic evidence into practice. Starting with an overview of the key concepts relevant to each discipline, the book covers critical elements such as governance, travel behavior and technological disruption, showing how to move towards a more sustainable society for all city inhabitants. Draws on evidence based success stories from countries around the globe. Gathers global leading thinkers to provide the state of the art on the topic. Examines social, economic and environmental impacts within each chapter. Each chapter's content will have the same structure for easier discoverability.

Critique in Design and Technology Education P. John Williams, Kay Stables, 2017-02-21. This book addresses notions of critique in Design and Technology Education, facilitating a conceptual and practical understanding of critique and enabling both a personal and pedagogical application to practice. Critique can be a frame of mind and may be related to a technology, product, process or material. In a holistic sense, critique is an element of a person's technological literacy, a fundamentally critical disposition brought to bear on all things technological. This book provides a reasoned conceptual framework within which to develop critique and examples of applying the framework to Design and Technology Education. The book builds on The Future of Technology Education published by Springer as the first in the series Contemporary Issues in Technology Education. In the 21st century, an age of knowledge, students are called upon to access, analyse and evaluate constantly changing information to support personal and workplace decision making and on going innovation. A critical Design and Technology Education has an important role to play providing students with opportunities to integrate economic environmental social and technological worlds as they develop and refine their technological literacy Through the design and development of technology they collaborate evaluate and critically apply information developing cognitive and manipulative skills appropriate to the 21st century Critique goes beyond review or analysis addressing positive and negative technological development This book discusses and applies this deeper perspective identifying a clear role for critique in the context of Design and Technology Education

Corruption, Infrastructure Management and Public-Private Partnership

Mohammad Heydari, Kin Keung Lai, Zhou Xiaohu, 2021-10-27 Public Private Partnerships PPP or 3Ps allow the public sector to seek alternative funding and expertise from the private sector during procurement processes Such partnerships if executed with due diligence often benefit the public immensely Unfortunately Public Private Partnerships can be vulnerable to corruption This book looks at what measures we can put in place to check corruption during procurement and what good governance strategies the public sector can adopt to improve the performance of 3Ps The book applies mathematical models to analyze 3Ps It uses game theory to study the interaction and dynamics between the stakeholders and suggests strategies to reduce corruption risks in various 3Ps stages The authors explain through game theory based simulation how governments can adopt a evaluating process at the start of each procurement to weed out undesirable private partners and why the government should take a more proactive approach Using a methodological framework rooted in mathematical models to illustrate how we can combat institutional corruption this book is a helpful reference for anyone interested in public policymaking and public infrastructure management

Doctoral Education in South Africa

Nico Cloete, Johann Mouton, 2015-12-08 Worldwide in Africa and in South Africa the importance of the doctorate has increased disproportionately in relation to its share of the overall graduate output over the past decade This heightened attention has not only been concerned with the traditional role of the PhD namely the provision of future academics rather it has focused on the increasingly important role that higher education and particularly high level skills is perceived to play in national development and the knowledge economy This book is unique in the area of research into doctoral studies because it draws on a large number of studies conducted by the Centre of Higher Education Trust CHET and the Centre for Research on Evaluation Science and Technology CREST as well as on studies from the rest of Africa and the world In addition to the historical studies new quantitative and qualitative research was undertaken to produce the evidence base for the analyses presented in the book The findings presented in Doctoral Education in South Africa pose anew at least six tough policy questions that the country has struggled with since 1994 and continues to struggle with if it wishes to gear up the system to meet the target of 5 000 new doctorates a year by 2030 Discourses framed around the single imperatives of growth efficiency transformation or quality will not however generate the kind of policy discourses required to resolve these tough policy questions effectively What is needed is a change in approach that accommodates multiple imperatives and allows for these to
