J. D. Fage, R. A. Oliver

University Of Pretoria S Prospector:

The Living Rock Arthur Wilson,1994 This book concentrates on the social and economic effects that metals have had on community life and on wider historical developments It gives a fascinating perspective proclaiming that the history of metals is the history of civilization basing the text on the results of archeometallurgists and materials scientists and looking at the advancement of societies as a direct result of their new found technology The author s clear and lucid style prevents the book becoming aridly academic while he maps the course of ancient history through to medieval times and beyond showing metal to be ultimately the key to history

Missionsgeschichte, Kirchengeschichte, Weltgeschichte Ulrich van der Heyden,Heike Liebau,1996 The Gold Crusades Douglas Fetherling,1997-12-15 Among the hordes of starry eyed argonauts who flocked to the California gold rush of 1849 was an Australian named Edward Hargraves He left America empty handed only to find gold in his own backyard The result was the great Australian rush of the 1850s which also attracted participants from around the world A South African named P J Marais was one of them Marais too returned home in defeat only to set in motion the diamond and gold rushes that transformed southern Africa And so it went Most previous historians of the gold rushes have tended to view them as acts of spontaneous nationalism Each country likes to see its own gold rush as the one that either shaped those that followed or epitomized all the rest In The Gold Crusades A Social History of Gold Rushes 1849 1929 Douglas Fetherling takes a different approach Fetherling argues that the gold rushes in the United States Canada Australia New Zealand and South Africa shared
