Unwind Neal Shusterman Teaching Guide:

Unwind Neal Shusterman, 2009-06-02 In a society where unwanted teens are salvaged for their body parts three runaways fight the system that would unwind them Connor's parents want to be rid of him because he's a troublemaker Risa has no parents and is being unwound to cut orphanage costs Lev's unwinding has been planned since his birth as part of his family's strict religion Brought together by chance and kept together by desperation these three unlikely companions make a harrowing cross country journey knowing their lives hang in the balance If they can survive until their eighteenth birthday they can't be harmed but when every piece of them from their hands to their hearts are wanted by a world gone mad eighteen seems far far away In Unwind Boston Globe Horn Book Award winner Neal Shusterman challenges readers ideas about life not just where life begins and where it ends but what it truly means to be alive Teaching Girls on Fire Sarah Hentges, Sean P. Connors, 2020-05-19 The rise of YA dystopian literature has seen an explosion of female protagonists who are stirring young people's interest in social and political topics awakening their civic imagination and inspiring them to work for change These Girls on Fire are intersectional and multidimensional characters They are leaders in their communities and they challenge injustice and limited representations The Girl on Fire fights for herself and for those who are oppressed voiceless or powerless She is the hope for our shared future This collection of new essays brings together teachers and students from a variety of educational contexts to explore how to harness the cultural power of the Girl on Fire as we educate real world students Each essay provides both theoretical foundations as well as practical hands on teaching tools that can be used with diverse groups of students in formal as well as informal educational settings This volume challenges readers to realize the symbolic power the Girl on Fire has to raise consciousness and inform action and to keep that fire burning
