MINI LESSON

Topic: What are text structures?

Drill: _____

|--------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Connection (1 minute) | Remember, recall... Remind students that connections between ideas doesn't have to be explicit in the writing. The phrases "and then" and "later" and "then" can all show connections. Give them time to find and point out every "and," "because," "then," "afterwards," "later," "and then," etc., in a paragraph from their book. |
| Teaching Point (1 minute) | Explain, expand on teaching... The 5 text structures are: describe, sequence, cause and effect, compare and contrast, and problem/solution. |
| Teach (10 minutes) | Introduce the 5... List the 5 text structures and their purpose: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Describe: describe and explain Sequence: describe events in order Cause & Effect: explain why something happens and what the effects are Compare & Contrast: show how things are alike and different Problem/Solution: explain a problem and how to solve it |
| Practice (10 minutes) | Let us try... Give students a paragraph and highlight the text structures. Then, have them write a paragraph using one of the text structures. |
| Remember, only this year... | Remind students that in their book, they should have a paragraph that uses all 5 text structures. |

The text explains how something is working or how the text gives them the steps to the problem.

The text explains why something happens and what the effects are.

The text compares and contrasts between two or more things.

The text describes how something happens. Explain why something happens. Use the words "and," "then," "afterwards," "later," "and then," etc.

Describe how something happens. Explain why something happens. Use the words "and," "then," "afterwards," "later," "and then," etc.
