Small Libraries, Big Impact Yunfei Du, 2016-06-13 This valuable book shows how to get your community behind your library by making it an essential part of community life and demonstrating its benefit to all members of the community. Beyond supplying actionable advice, the book will also review relevant concepts and theoretical frameworks such as community outreach and partnership, social justice, and social inclusion; technology and social transition; cultural diversity and the digital divide; entrepreneurship; outreach best practices for marketing libraries; and library space design.

Congressional Record , Decolonizing Rhetoric and Composition Studies Iris D. Ruiz, Raúl Sánchez, 2016-10-15 This book brings together Latinx scholars in Rhetoric and Composition to discuss keywords that have been misused or appropriated by forces working against the interests of minority students. For example, in educational and political forums, rhetorics of identity and civil rights have been used to justify ideas and policies that reaffirm the myth of a normative US culture that is white, Eurocentric, and monolingually English. Such attempts amount to a project of neo-colonization if we understand colonization to mean not only the taking of land but also the taking of culture of which language is a crucial part. The editors introduce the concept of epistemic delinking and argue for its use in conceptualizing a kind of rhetorical and discursive decolonization, and contributors offer examples of this decolonization in action through detailed work on specific terms. Specifically, they draw on their training in rhetoric and on their own experiences as people of color to help reset the field's agenda. They also theorize new keywords to shed light on the great varieties of Latinx writing.
