Fake Gods and False History Jonathan Galton, 2023-11-23 In an age where history is a global battleground and fake news proliferates culture wars are being waged across India over its future majoritarian or inclusive neoliberal or socialist religious or secular Fake Gods and False History takes us to the BDD Chawls a central Mumbai neighbourhood of tenement blocks chawls on the brink of a controversial redevelopment It reveals how contested narratives of Indian history play out in the daily life of this divided neighbourhood and how the legacies of certain godlike but very human historical figures such as Dr Babasaheb Ambedkar and Chhatrapati Shivaji are invoked by different communities Jonathan Galton draws on research conducted among the formerly untouchable Dalit Buddhist community who are staunchly opposed to the redevelopment plans and deeply critical of the religious nationalism they perceive in their Hindu neighbours We also meet young male migrants living in village linked dormitory rooms called Gramastha Mandals trapped in a liminal space between urban and rural Throughout the book which is woven through with candid reflections on methodology and research ethics readers are challenged into drawing connections with their own experiences of history impinging on their lives A story that might initially seem parochial will thus resonate with a diverse global audience International Perspectives on Teachers Living with Curriculum Change Martin

Wedell, Laura Grassick, 2017-11-10 This book gives a voice to English language teachers faced with the challenges posed by English language curriculum change As a core component of national state system curricula in virtually every country in the world there has nevertheless been little research exploring how the millions of English teachers worldwide navigate the challenges posed by such curriculum changes This volume includes eleven stories from teachers based across every continent providing a global glimpse of how national English curriculum change projects have been experienced by classroom teachers who are commonly if erroneously viewed as mostly responsible for its implementation success or failure The final chapter synthesises these experiences and suggests wider implications for the development of curriculum change planning processes and how they might better support teachers attempts to achieve curriculum goals Edited and authored by leading experts in the field this ground breaking collection will be of interest to students and scholars of English language teaching teacher education curriculum change and education policy MES-042: Dimensions of Educational Management
