Read the following passage to answer Q. nos. 47 to 50:

The man who perpetually hesitates which of the two things he will do first, will do neither. The man who resolves but changes his resolution at the first counter-suggestion of a friend, who fluctuates from opinion to opinion, from plan to plan and veers like a weathercock to every point of the compass, with every breath of caprice that blows, can never accomplish anything great or useful. Whimsicality and vacillations are the bedrocks on which the edifice of failure is constructed. Nothing worthy, nothing fruitful is born out of a mind that is like a ship without a radar, drifting aimlessly on the high ocean of life. It is only the man who first consults wisely, then resolves firmly and then executes his purpose with inflexible perseverance, undismayed by those petty difficulties which daunt a weaker spirit, that can advance to prominence in any field. The course is to be taken wisely and firmly. Once taken, it has to be pursued with heroic resolution. With indomitable spirit and unquestionable dedication to the purpose, one can conquer the universe.
