range of clothing and accessory patterns dress up your doll for home and abroad from basic underwear and shoes to dresses dungarees sweaters coats and hats As well as wardrobe essentials you can create accessories to match each outfit including a teddy for bedtime a bucket for the beach cakes for the kitchen and even a penguin for the North Pole There s a range of dressing up costumes with an adorable bear suit and a fun superhero mask and cape The cute mini suitcase pattern is the perfect for storing all of your dolls belongings and it doubles up as a bed too Be aware that crochet terms in the United States are different from those in the U K This can be confusing as the same terms are used to refer to different stitches under each system All crochet patterns in this book are written in U K and European terms U S crocheters must take care that they work the correct stitches One way to tell which system is being used in other patterns is that the American system starts with a single crochet which the U K system doesn t have so patterns with sc in them can be identified as American patterns

Making To-Live-For Dolls Celia Desmond, 2013-04 This book is a must read for anyone making a porcelain doll wanting to enter in a competition In the book you will find tips and information from notes taken at seminars and private lessons with the top doll makers in the world today There are two main categories of porcelain dolls modern and antique Modern dolls are those sculpted by modern artists Antique dolls are those that were first introduced and sold either more than fifty years ago or by some definitions more than one hundred years ago Actual antique dolls can be purchased for enjoyment and possibly to use as models for the making of reproductions Excellent reproductions of the antique dolls can be made by modern day artists Modern dolls are those sculpted by current day sculptors Modern dolls can be painted and dressed in any way the doll artisan prefers They can have painted eyes or the holes can be cut out from the porcelain before the bisque firing to allow the insertion of glass eyes Neither technique is easy Each has its own challenges and both look nice when done well These dolls can be dressed in any way the artist wishes as well Reproductions of antiques must be done so that the artist reproduces the original patterns and colors as they were initially done on the specific dolls This means reproducing the eyes with the same number of lashes that the artists painted on the antique dolls the same slant and the same spacing Dressing the antique reproductions poses another challenge as the dolls should be dressed in a period costume appropriate for that doll The fabrics should be natural fibers often actual vintage or antique fabrics Significant research is required to determine what styles fabrics and colors should be used for specific dolls This book has a wonderful collection of tips collected from the experts These are helpful for all doll makers especially people preparing for competitions This book contains a wealth of information for lovers and makers of both modern and reproduction antique dolls The information has been collected over the years from most of the most talented and experienced doll makers in the world It is shared here with those interested in preserving this art approaching each aspect of the doll in the best way possible
