Stories we live and grow by Muna Saleh,2019-02-01 Interweaving my experiences as a Canadian Muslim woman mother grand daughter educator and scholar throughout this work I write about living and narratively inquiring Clandinin and Connelly Narrative Inquiry Clandinin alongside three Muslim mothers and daughters during our daughters transition into adolescence I was interested in mother and daughter experiences during this time of life transition because my eldest daughter Malak was in the midst of transitioning into adolescence as I embarked upon my doctoral research I had many wonders about Malak s experiences my experiences as a mother and the experiences of other Muslim daughters and mothers in the midst of similar life transitions I wondered about how dominant narratives from within and across Muslim and other communities in Canada shape our lives and experiences For while we are often storied as victims of various oppressions in media literature and elsewhere little is known about our diverse experiences par ticularly the experiences of Muslim mothers and daughters composing our selves and lives alongside one another in familial places Fatherhood and Welfare

Subcommittee on Disability Policy,1994 The Ohio Educational Monthly ,1922 [Test1] Character Counts! A Life of Hyojeong Character Education Textbook ,2024-08-01 The various nations of the world approach character or moral education in different ways Unlike other nations England does not have a moral education curriculum It is through religious education and other courses in the curriculum that a moral life and moral habits are consistently emphasized In France education of children in the family is very strict and parents have near absolute authority The internalization of virtues and regulations is emphasized through French civic education and in the 3rd year of high school a course in philosophy is compulsory In the case of Germany character education is taught as religion a separate course that is part of the regular curriculum Ethics is also recognized as an alternative course Canada a nation with a vast territory and beautiful nature implements various social education programs that promote the healthy enjoyment of hobbies and that also act as character education In the cases of Scotland and Finland a regular course titled Ethics is used for character education and this course in ethics is given greater weight than courses in grammar English or mathematics Love in the Second Act Alison Leslie Gold,2006-01-19 Inspiring stories of individuals aged 46 to 97 who experienced a resurgence of passion in their lives when they least expected it F Scott Fitzgerald believed there are no second acts in American lives Yet at least as far as love is concerned the statistics indicate otherwise These days more and more people are falling in love and embarking on deep and fulfilling romantic relationships in the later part of their lives At a time when the specter of spending one s final years alone can seem only slightly less intimidating than Internet dating the subjects profiled in this book tossed their hearts up in the air with the hope that love just might spring eternal And just how different is the game at age seventy five than it was at age twenty five This book forms an engaging meditation on the ways that love itself alters and matures as we grow older Organized around the distinct and often surprising themes that emerged from Gold s conversations with lovers from all walks of life love suddenly appearing out of the shadows following a determination to find it at whatever cost second act relationships that represent 180 degree turns for the parties involved a sense of finally coming home to the one you were meant to be with in the final stages of life Love in the Second Act will remind anyone young or old that the quest for love is never ending The Journal of political economy , Teachers College Record ,1929 A Course of Study for the Elementary Schools of Wisconsin Wisconsin. Department of Public Instruction,1929 Course of Study for State Graded Schools of Wisconsin Wisconsin. Department of Public Instruction,1929 Teaching for Wisdom Michel Ferrari,Georges Potworowski,2008-10-14 The chapters in this volume are all devoted to a single question Can wisdom be taught or at least fostered They span many different traditions and times which generates both problems and opportunities The most obvious problem is that of translation As Curnow points out in the opening chapter the word wisdom is used to translate a variety of terms from antiquity that have only a partial overlap with modern work It is interesting to consider that the Egyptian word seboyet translates as either wisdom or instruction The same is true of terms from Buddhism or Confucianism or even the Ancient Greek tradition acknowledged as a source of most current views of wisdom in the West all the terms drawn from other languages and traditions have only partially overlapping meaning With this in mind each chapter can be read independently of the others However we have also arranged them in an order that reflects common themes that emerge despite this diversity We have not arranged them by geographical region or historical time but rather by the sort of educational strategy they advocate to foster wisdom The first chapter by Curnow provides a basic overview of approaches to teaching for wisdom in the West This is already a very ambitious undertaking spanning ancient Egypt and Mesopotamia to the renaissance and the dawn of the modern world where the term wisdom has fallen largely out of fashion until very recently
