

ACT

TEST-TAKING STRATEGIES

Created by  NYC Tutoring .com

Many colleges use the ACT to help determine which applicants to accept. Here are some helpful tips and tricks for excelling on this crucial exam.

1. Start preparing long in advance

Relax the day before the test, and get good, restful sleep.

2. Learn the structure of the ACT

Use practice tests to get used to how the test works.

3. Use your test booklet

Write down thoughts in the booklet and keep your answer sheet clean.

4. Avoid changing your answers

Your instinct is often right. Change answers only if you're sure they're wrong.

5. Start with the easy questions

Skip the hard ones and go back later if you have enough time.

6. Don't be afraid to guess

Just use the process of elimination to remove clearly wrong answers.

7. Know how to manage your time

Don't spend too much time on any one question.

8. Be prepared

The facility may not have an accurate clock, so bring your own stopwatch if permitted.

9. Read questions in their entirety

Don't assume you know what a question is asking.

10. Don't forget your test strategies

Don't let nerves get the best of you; stick to your strategies.
