from the capitalist quest for profit Not even children have escaped being objectified and dehumanized in this manner Heimermann examines a variety of texts that center on children and adolescents who are marked as different from the adult characters and consequently viewed as grotesque Chapters cover Jeff Lemire's Sweet Tooth M R Carey's The Girl with All the Gifts Katherine Dunn's Geek Love Richard Starkings's Elephantmen Kazuo Ishiguro's Never Let Me Go and more Because the young characters are not viewed as equal members of society they must either strike back at those who commodify them or risk facing a lifetime of dehumanization Grotesque Progeny argues that these monstrous depictions reveal societal unease over shortsighted economic and political thinking the exploitation of children and the changing nature of childhood The book addresses a growing concern over which spaces ought to be excluded or removed from the harsh valuations of neoliberalism
