Anthology of Turkish Science Fiction Stories Sümeyra Buran ,Veli Uğur, 2023-12-21 Turkish science fiction dates back to the early years of the twentieth century and serious development has been seen ever since The writers who escaped from the darkness of the First World War and took refuge in utopian science fiction added the excitement created by science and technology to their texts over time Turkish writers who followed the science fiction works from the West and made efforts for the development of this genre produced very qualified works that could compete with their contemporaries at some points However due to some historical social and economic problems it was not possible for these works to meet readers in the West In this anthology the works of Turkish science fiction writers are brought together for the first time in

English Contemporary science fiction writers have written short stories for this anthology Hence the resulting diversity of stories represents a contribution to science fiction literature An important feature of the anthology is that it includes examples showing how science and technology are perceived philosophically by authors outside of Europe and America Since literature is an indispensable resource to investigate the equivalent of science fiction which was born with modernism in post modern societies This anthology of Turkish science fiction will be an important Non Western SF source for both science fiction readers and researchers

Creative Teaching, Sustainable Learning Ulrike Sievers, 2017-11-09 There are many books on foreign language teaching this book is different because it focuses on the learner and the learning process It starts from the social nature of interactive learning and locates learning in a community of learners one of whom is the teacher The conditions for lasting learning in the foreign language are the basis for the teaching methods These aim to provide a rich and shared learning context offer individualised support and scaffolding for learning and make the language the medium for learning what learners are interested in as developing persons It makes teachers into reflective researchers of their practice thus ensuring that teaching is an art a craft and a science The best learning occurs when teachers can read the effects of their teaching on the learning behaviour of the pupils and are able to adapt their approach to be inclusive of all learning types The approach carefully developed in this book takes foreign language teaching and learning to a new level Without losing touch with its origins in Waldorf pedagogy it also draws on contemporary learning theory Above all it is an authentic account of the learning journey of a committed and caring teacher
