Automobile Heritage and Tourism Michael V. Conlin, Lee Jolliffe,2016-12-01 Automobile heritage encompasses a complex range of artefacts and activities Beyond just historic vehicles which are the primary artefacts of this niche it also includes communities of collectors and enthusiasts private owners and public institutions as well as historic motoring environments literally thousands of museums exhibitions and car shows throughout the world and a range of paraphernalia that includes both original and replicated promotional materials equipment and parts and guide books Although automobile heritage has been the subject of some limited research Automobile Heritage and Tourism is unique in examining its scope and role within tourism The book looks at a vast array of topics from the experience of using and collecting old cars related destination development automobile heritage and museums to events such as vintage automobile racing promotion and social change It thereby provides a thorough review of the impacts of automobile heritage on tourism A number of theories provide a framework and are analysed throughout including those related to the collection display exhibition and use of historic automobiles The title takes a global and interdisciplinary view of the subject with international contributions from both established and emerging scholars in the field This book adds to the industrial heritage tourism literature and will appeal to a diverse audience in particular those in the fields of cultural heritage and industrial heritage tourism but also practitioners involved with the planning restoration exhibition and management of automobile heritage attractions and events The Global Automotive Industry Paul Nieuwenhuis, Peter Wells, 2015-10-12 The automotive industry is still one of the world's largest manufacturing sectors but it suffers from being very technology focused as well as being relatively short term focused There is little emphasis within the industry and its consultancy and analyst supply network on the broader social and economic impacts of automobility and of the sector that provides it The Global Automotive Industry addresses this need and is a first port of call for any academic official or consultant wanting an overview of the state of the industry An international team of specialist researchers both from academia and business review and analyse the key issues that make vehicle manufacturing still the world's premier manufacturing sector closely tied in with the fortunes of both established and newly emerging economies In doing so it covers issues related to manufacturing both established practices as well as new developments issues relating to distribution marketing and retail vehicle technologies and regulatory trends and crucially labour practices and the people who build cars In all this it explains both how the current situation arose and also likely future trajectories both in terms of social and regulatory trends as the technological marketing and labour practice responses to those leading in many cases to the development of new business models Key features Provides a global overview of the automotive industry covering its current state and considering future challenges Contains contributions from international specialists in the automotive sector Presents current research and sets this in an historical and broader industry context Covers threats to the industry including globalization economic and environmental sustainability The Global Automotive Industry is a must have reference for researchers and practitioners in the automotive industry and is an excellent source of information for business schools governments and graduate and undergraduate students in automotive engineering
