Keith Purvis, School of Advanced Military Studies, 2012-09-29 This monograph analyzes the history of United States Army leadership doctrine from 1983 through 2011 to identify the evolution of strategic leadership theory and practice in Army doctrine Using leadership doctrine the focus is on the analysis of the articles reports opinions studies and research papers surrounding each doctrinal publication This research uses an analytical approach across the timeline of leadership doctrine by understanding each approved doctrine reviewing the intellectual debate within the Army institution and across other leadership disciplines examining the doctrinal changes in the published documents and exploring the future of proposed strategic leadership doctrine Beginning with the renewed emphasis on tactical direct leadership attributes published in 1983 the omission of operational and strategic leadership in the doctrine identified a gap in addressing leadership at all levels within the Army Following executive level leadership discourse in the 1980s the publication of FM 22 103 Leadership and Command at Senior Levels in 1987 established the first doctrinal framework for command and leadership above the direct tactical level for the Army Coupled with the 1993 AR 600 100 Army Leadership Army leadership policies became a better codified part of training and leader development specifically in recognition of different levels of leadership including direct senior and executive The consolidation and reorganization of Army leadership doctrine in 1999 placed the three levels of leadership together in one doctrinal reference however differences still existed between definitions of the levels FM 22 100 Army Leadership Be Know Do used direct organizational and strategic while the 1993 regulation used direct senior and strategic By 2007 the newly published documents finally agreed providing clarity of purpose and better understanding for all Army leaders as they progressed through the different leadership levels Strategic leadership thought and its importance to Army leaders continued to evolve and remained a much discussed researched and published topic into the twenty first century National military and government leaders addressed the need to improve strategic leaders ability to understand and prepare for future conflicts while presenting the ways strategic leadership fits into overall leadership doctrine The planned forthcoming updates to the 2006 Army Leadership Competent Confident and Agile manual continues those linkages for strategic leaders The monograph concludes that strategic leaders must understand the strategy of the organization where the organization fits in the complex environment and what the organization must do to be successful Through inclusion of strategic leadership references in consolidated Army doctrine the academic theories and methods surrounding strategic leadership became more widely spread across the force further improving the understanding necessary for a successful organization The leadership traditions of the United States Army better known for the direct leadership examples executed in every conflict continues to have a codified description of the strategic leadership attributes necessary for continued success accessible to all leaders from the newest to the most senior Be * Know * Do, Adapted from the Official Army

Leader Development June 2015 United States Government US Army,2015-07-27 This publication Field Manual FM 6 22 Leader Development June 2015 provides a doctrinal framework covering methods for leaders to develop other leaders improve their organizations build teams and develop themselves The principal audience for FM 6 22 is all leaders military and civilian with an application focus at the operational and tactical levels Trainers and educators throughout the Army will also use this manual Army leaders are the competitive advantage the Army possesses that technology cannot replace nor be substituted by advanced weaponry and platforms Today s Army demands trained and ready units with agile proficient leaders Developing our leaders is integral to our institutional success today and tomorrow It is an important investment to make for the future of the Army because it builds trust in relationships and units prepares leaders for future uncertainty and is critical to readiness and our Army s success Leader development programs must recognize produce and reward leaders who are inquisitive creative adaptable and capable of exercising mission command Leaders exhibit commitment to developing subordinates through execution of their professional responsibility to teach counsel coach and mentor subordinates Successful robust leader development programs incorporate accountability engagement and commitment create agile and competent leaders produce stronger organizations and teams and increase expertise by reducing gaps between knowledge and resources. Leader development involves multiple practices that ensure people have the opportunities to fulfill their goals and that the Army has capable leaders in position and ready for the future. The practices include recruiting accessions, training, education, assigning, promoting, broadening, and retaining the best leaders while challenging them over time with greater responsibility, authority, and accountability. Army leaders assume progressively broader responsibilities across direct, organizational, and strategic levels of leadership. FM 6-22 integrates doctrine, experience, and best practices by drawing upon applicable Army doctrine and regulations, input of successful Army commanders and noncommissioned officers, recent Army leadership studies, and research on effective practices from the private and public sectors. FM 6-22 provides Army leaders with information on effective leader development methods by translating Army leader feedback into quick applications, prioritizing leader development activities under conditions of limited resources, integrating unit leader development into already occurring day-to-day activities, and integrating ADRP 6-22 leader attributes and competencies consistently across Army leader development doctrine. FM 6-22 contains seven chapters that describe the Army's view on identifying and executing collective and individual leader development needs. Chapter 1 discusses the tenets of Army leader development, the purpose of developing leaders to practice the mission command philosophy, building teams, and development transitions across organizational levels. Chapter 2 discusses the creation of unit leader development programs. Chapter 3 addresses the fundamentals for developing leaders in units by setting conditions, providing feedback, and enhancing learning while creating opportunities. Chapter 4 provides information on the self-development process, including strengths and developmental needs, determination, and goal setting. Chapter 5 discusses character, judgment, and problem solving, and adaptability as situational leader demands. Chapter 6 provides information on leader performance indicators to enable observations and feedback. Chapter 7 provides recommended learning and developmental activities.

Fm 6-22 US Army Command and College Staff, 2011-07-15. FM 6-22 Army Leadership Manual. Be the best you can be when you lead people with this manual. This is the official manual used by the US Army to teach leadership on the battlefield and off. The principles in this manual can help you be a better leader in the business world, in the household, and anywhere you need to take charge. *Be * Know * Do*. U.S. Army, 2010-03-09. The United States Army is one of the most complex, best-run organizations in the world, and central to the Army's success are strong leadership and exceptional leadership development. Army leaders must be able to act decisively and effectively in challenging situations. But the Army, despite its organizational structure, does not train leaders in a hierarchical manner. Dispersed leadership is the key to the success of the Army leadership model. Now, for the first time, you can have access to the Army's successful leadership philosophy and the principles that are outlined in Be Know Do, the official Army Leadership Manual. Be Know Do makes this critical information available to civilian leaders in all sectors: business, government, and nonprofit, and gives them the guidelines they need to create an organization where leadership
