Cities Un-Habitat, 2016-05-13 Current urban planning systems are not equipped to deal with the major urban challenges of the twenty first century including effects of climate change resource depletion and economic instability plus continued rapid urbanization with its negative consequences such as poverty slums and urban informality These planning systems have also to a large extent failed to meaningfully involve and accommodate the ways of life of communities and other stakeholders in the planning of urban areas thus contributing to the problems of spatial marginalization and exclusion It is clear that urban planning needs to be reconsidered and revitalized for a sustainable urban future Planning Sustainable Cities reviews the major challenges currently facing cities and towns all over the world the emergence and spread of modern urban planning and the effectiveness of current approaches More importantly it identifies innovative urban planning approaches and practices that are more responsive to current and future challenges of urbanization The Global Report on Human Settlements is the most authoritative and up to date global assessment of human settlements conditions and trends It is an essential reference for researchers academics public authorities and civil society organizations all over the world Preceding issues of the report have addressed such topics as Cities in a Globalizing World The Challenge of Slums Financing Urban Shelter and Enhancing Urban Safety and Security Megacities Dirk Kruijt, Kees Koonings, 2013-04-04 For the first time in history the majority of the world's population lives in cities the result of a rapid process of urbanization that started in the second half of the twentieth century Megacities around the world are rapidly becoming the scene for deprivation especially in the global South and the urban excluded face the brunt of what in many cases seems like low intensity warfare Featuring case studies from across the globe including Latin America the Middle East and Africa Megacities examines recent worldwide trends in poverty and social exclusion urban violence and politics and links these to the challenges faced by policy makers and practitioners

GIS in Sustainable Urban Planning and Management Martin van Maarseveen, Javier Martinez, Johannes Flacke, 2018-12-07 The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.tandfebooks.com/doi/view/10.1201/9781315146638> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 3.0 license GIS is used today to better understand and solve urban problems GIS in Sustainable Urban Planning and Management A Global Perspective explores and illustrates the capacity that geo information and GIS have to inform practitioners and other participants in the processes of the planning and management of urban regions The first part of the book addresses the concept of sustainable urban development its different frameworks the many ways of measuring sustainability and its value in the urban policy arena The second part discusses how urban planning can shape our cities examines various spatial configurations of cities the spread of activities and the demands placed on different functions to achieve strategic objective It further focuses on the recognition that urban dwellers are increasingly under threat from natural hazards and climate change Written by authors with expertise on the applications of geo information in urban management this book showcases the importance of GIS in better understanding current urban challenges and provides new insights on how to apply GIS in urban planning It illustrates through real world cases the use of GIS in analyzing and evaluating the position of disadvantaged groups and areas in cities and provides clear examples of applied GIS in urban sustainability and urban resilience The idea of sustainable development is still very much central in the new development agenda of the United Nations and in that sense it is of particular importance for students from both the Global South and Global North Professionals researchers and students alike will find this book to be an invaluable resource for understanding and solving problems relating to sustainable urban planning and management Handbook on Child Poverty and Inequality Alberto Minujin, Enrique Delamonica, 2025-07-15 This Handbook provides a comprehensive overview of the conceptualisation and the latest developments in research about child poverty and inequality Adopting a child rights framework it demonstrates the importance of a multi dimensional understanding of poverty specific to children for both research and policy making

Changing Governance and Public Policy in East Asia Ka Ho Mok, Ray Forrest, 2008-11-24 The search for good governance has become an increasingly important element of public policy and public management and is high on the political agenda of East Asian countries The need for robust governance structures and institutions was brought into sharp focus by the Asian Financial Crisis which adversely affected most East Asian societies Since then they have begun to look for ways to restructure their public administration and political systems in order to develop new mechanisms and structures to promote good governance This book focuses on how selected Asian states have responded to the growing impact of liberalizing and marketizing trends in public policy formulation and public management To what extent is the state guided regime in Asia still relevant to governing public policy public management What are the policy implications for a growing number of Asian states which are pursuing more pro competition policy instruments The book is a timely and important collection that offers critical analysis of the search for new governance in Asia and compares and contrasts experiences in selected Asian societies such as China Japan Hong Kong Taiwan South Korea Singapore and other parts of South East Asia Chapters are written by leading scholars in the fields of comparative development policy and governance studies from Hong Kong Macau Taiwan China Singapore Japan and the United Kingdom

Managing Urban Futures Marco Keiner, 2016-12-05 Urbanization is one of the most powerful forces influencing global sustainability It is dominated by three factors population growth rural urban migration and subsequent urban expansion Perhaps nowhere are these factors more dominant than in developing countries This volume brings together leading experts including Alan Gilbert John Friedmann Saskia Sassen and Janice Perlman to explore the conflicting challenges of rapid urbanization in developing countries While all have to contend with key issues such as social segregation poverty and loss of governability the ongoing forces of urban growth vary from country to country By comparing the challenges of urbanization in Africa Latin America Asia and the Pacific this book puts forward a new way of thinking about mega and million cities in developing countries one that promotes their vital function in society as engines of ideas technologies societal change democratic transformation and loci of political will to build a new regime of global sustainability

Rebel Streets and the Informal Economy Alison Brown, 2017-02-24 Street trade is a critical and highly visible component of the informal economy linked to global systems of exchange Yet policy responses are dismissive and evictions commonplace Despite being progressively marginalised from public space street traders in the global south are engaged in spatial and political battlegrounds to reclaim space and claim de facto property rights over their place of work through quiet infiltration union power or direct action This book explores rebel streets the challenges faced by informal economy actors and how organised groups are seeking to reframe legal understandings to create new claims to space and urban rights The book sets out new thinking and a conceptual framework for improved understanding of the plural relationship between law rights and space for the informal economy the contest between traditional modernist and rights based approaches to development and impacts on the urban working poor With a focus on street trading the book seeks to reframe the legal context in which modern informal economies operate drawing on key areas of academic inquiry and case studies of how vendors are staking claim to urban rights The book argues for a reconceptualisation of legal instruments to provide a rights based framework for urban work that recognises the legitimacy of urban informal economies the scope for collective management of urban resources and the social value of public space as a site for urban livelihoods It will be of interest to students and scholars of geography economics urban studies development studies political studies and law

Urban Resettlements in the Global South Raffael Beier, Amandine Spire, Marie Bridonneau, 2021-09-09 Urban Resettlements in the Global South provides new perspectives on resettlement through an urban studies lens To date resettlement has been theorised through development studies and refugee studies but urban resettlement is also a major dimension of urban development in the Global South and may help to rethink contemporary urban dynamics between spectacular new town developments and rising incidences of eviction and displacement Conceptualising resettlement as a binding notion between production regeneration and destruction demolition of urban space helps to illuminate interdependencies and to underline significant ambiguities within affected people s perspectives towards resettlement projects This volume will offer an interesting selection of ten different case studies with rich empirical data from Latin America North and Sub Saharan Africa and Asia focused on each stage of resettlement before during after relocation through different timescales By offering a frame for analysing and rethinking resettlement within urban studies it will support any scholar or expert dealing with resettlement displacement and housing in an urban context seeking to improve housing and planning policies in and for the city New Perspectives in Caribbean Tourism Marcella Daye, Donna Chambers, Sherma Roberts, 2008-04-07 This volume explores tourism in the Caribbean one of the most tourism dependent regions of the world within the context of key currents of Caribbean thought and critique in relation to issues of dependency postcolonial interactions race and class as well as identity and culture African Cities Francesca Locatelli, Paul Nugent, 2009 Contemporary Africa is undergoing a period of unprecedented urban expansion which is throwing up new challenges in the provision of essential services and contentious questions about ownership of urban spaces This volume explores the interconnections between these processes whilst avoiding the tendency to forget that cities are also embedded in deeper historical processes that are integral to the framing of entitlements Histories of migrancy and the creation of urban stranger communities are fundamental in deciding who lives where and what this means materially and socially The gated communities that are springing up are often layered across older forms of urban segregation and or segmentation Urban water and food supply the management of urban land claims inequality and popular culture are closely examined From Local Action to Global Networks: Housing the Urban Poor Peter Herrle, Astrid Ley, 2016-03-09 Over the past two decades it has become widely recognized that housing issues have to be placed in a broader framework acknowledging that civil society in the form of Community Based Organizations CBOs and their allies are increasingly networking and emerging as strong players that cannot easily be overlooked Some of these networks have crossed local and national boundaries and have jumped political scales This implies that housing issues have to be looked at from new angles they can no longer simply be addressed through localized projects but rather at multiple scales The current debate is largely limited to statements about the relevance of individual organizations for local housing processes and tends to overlook the innovativeness in terms of re scaling those processes and of influencing institutional change at various levels by transcending national boundaries There is a significant lack of a systemic understanding of such globally operating grassroots networks and how they function in the housing process This book brings together different perspectives on multi scalar approaches within the housing field and on grassroots engagement with formal agencies including local government higher levels of government and international agencies By moving away from romanticizing local self initiatives it focuses on understanding the emerging potential once local initiatives are interlinked and scaled up to transnational networks
