

U.S. ARMY WARRANT OFFICER CAREER COLLEGE

1. Army Writing Style

Following the components of the Army writing style will lead you to write to Army standard. The Army standard is stated as "transmits a clear message in a single rapid reading and is generally free of errors in grammar, mechanics, and usage." A general summary of the Army writing style is below:

1. Put the recommendation, conclusion or reason for writing — the bottom line — in the first or second paragraph, not at the end.
2. Use the active voice.
3. Use short sentences (an average of 15 or fewer words).
4. Use short words (three syllables or fewer).
5. Write paragraphs that average 6 to 7 sentences in length.
6. Use correct spelling, grammar, and punctuation.
7. Use "I," "you," and "we" as subjects of sentences instead of "this office," "this headquarters," "all individuals," and so forth for most kinds of writing.
8. Retype correspondence only when pen and ink changes are not allowed, when the changes make the final product look sloppy, or when the correspondence is going outside DA or to the general public. In general, do not retype correspondence to make minor corrections.

Learning to accurately use the various components of the Army writing style correctly will help you learn to write using the Army writing standard.

The Evolution Of U.s. Army Nuclear Doctrine, 1945-1980 John P Rose,2019-07-09 The development of U S Army nuclear doctrine policies plans procedures tactics and techniques since World War II its impact on Army forces and its role in future wars is the subject of this policy oriented analysis The definition of Army nuclear doctrine advanced by the author clearly implies a distinction between policy for the employment of nuclear weapons as determined by the president and the role adduced by the Army Dr Rose suggests that developments both nuclear and conventional in U S Army tactical doctrine have been more responsive to political preferences held by national authorities than to the real nature of the potential threat and rigors of the nuclear battlefield Further he argues that the type of war preparations favored by U S political authorities over the last fifteen years and the type of war for which the Soviet Union is preparing differ markedly making the U S Army poorly prepared for a major war
