Volistad was first colonized by the Imperium in 3776m43. However, history of Volistad at this point is unknown. Warp Storms isolated the planet while still in its sociological infancy, left to develop on its own for the next 3,500 years.

When Volistad was re-discovered by the Imperium in 4177m43, it was in a state of planetary civil war; feudal, war driven economies, led by four main families (House Ochinka, House Pytchenka, House Silenka, and House Volga), had brought the planet to its knees. The in-fighting had become so fierce that, due mainly to nuclear proliferation, the eco-system was near collapse - most of the surface had been overtaken by the oceans, swollen by melted polar caps.

The Imperium put a stop to all of this.

With technologically advanced troops, the Departmentus Reclamatus set to work crushing the in-fighting and introducing the world to the ways of the Imperium. The strongest family, House Pytchenka, was placed in position as the Official Imperial Family. The eco-system was restored to a workable state and technology was brought up to Imperial standard.

For the past 2,500 standard Teran years, Volistad has been a planet strongly loyal to the Imperium. Two main elements place Volistad at a premium to the Imperium — the Astropaths and the Titans. Nestled in the central region of Tollscharin, lies the Adeptus Astra Telepathica monastery. The Astronomicon is a navigational reference point, essential for safe and successful traversing of the perilous realms of nearby warp space. The Astropaths' role on Volistad are to provide a stabilizing influence upon this temperamental warp site, allowing the Astronomicon to perform its function, permitting relatively safe warp navigation to continue through this vital corridor of the segmentum. Should the distortions become too great to stabilize, or should any ships find themselves in jeopardy within the warp, the Volistad Astropaths can provide what is effectively a psychic lighthouse.

The Astropaths have had to cease their "work," however, since the Orks arrived for fear that the Ork psychic "Windboys" might discover them and their purpose. Should the Astropaths be destroyed, the Orks could cut off the whole sector from Imperial navigation and entire regions of space would be at their mercy. It would certainly
