War Is a Force that Gives Us Meaning Chris Hedges, 2014-04-08 General George S Patton famously said Compared to war all other forms of human endeavor shrink to insignificance God I do love it so Though Patton was a notoriously single minded general it is nonetheless a sad fact that war gives meaning to many lives a fact with which we have become familiar now that America is once again engaged in a military conflict War is an enticing elixir It gives us purpose resolve a cause It allows us to be noble Chris Hedges of The New York Times has seen war up close in the Balkans the Middle East and Central America and he has been troubled by what he has seen friends enemies colleagues and strangers intoxicated and even addicted to war s heady brew In War Is a Force That Gives Us Meaning he tackles the ugly truths about humanity s love affair with war offering a sophisticated nuanced intelligent meditation on the subject that is also gritty powerful and unforgettable

Studying The Hurt Locker Terence McSweeney, 2019-07-02 In this vibrant and dynamic book length study drawing on a broad tapestry of research Terence McSweeney offers an exploration of The Hurt Locker 2009 its stylistic and narrative devices its cultural impact its reception and its relationship to the genre of the war film McSweeney places the film in a richly textured historical political and industrial context arguing that The Hurt Locker is part of a long tradition of films about American wars that play a considerable role in how audiences come to understand the conflicts that they depict Thus films about a nation s wars are never only a movie but rather should be considered a cultural battleground themselves on which a war of representation is waged

Pacifism as War Abolitionism Cheyney Ryan, 2024-03-12 Responding to the unprecedented violence of our times and the corresponding interest in nonviolent solutions this book takes up the heart of pacifism its critique of what pacifists have termed the war system Pacifism as War Abolitionism provides an account of the war system that draws on contemporary sociology history and political philosophy The core of its critique of that system is that war begets war and hence war will not be ended or even constrained by finding more principled ways to fight war as many imagine War can only be ended by ending the war system which can only be done nonviolently This has been the message of pacifism s great voices like Gandhi Dr Martin Luther King Jr and Dorothy Day It is the principal message of this book Key Features Draws extensively on the sociological and historical research on war to expand the usual philosophical discussion beyond hypothetical accounts Expands the dialogues on the ethics of war beyond just war theory to its principal alternative pacifism Engages discussion of empire and imperialism in relation to the logic and development of the war system Presents pacifism s response to the reality of war today including the idea of never ending war
