Margaret Holben Ellis,2015-02-01 This book is the seventh in the Readings in Conservation series which gathers and publishes texts that have been influential in the development of thinking about the conservation of cultural heritage The present volume provides a selection of more than ninety five texts tracing the development of the conservation of works of art on paper Comprehensive and thorough the book relates how paper conservation has responded to the changing place of prints and drawings in society The readings include a remarkable range of historical selections from texts such as Renaissance printmaker Ugo da Carpi s sixteenth century petition to the Venetian senate on his invention of chiaroscuro Thomas Churchyard s 1588 essay in verse A Sparke of Frendship and Warne Goodwill and Robert Bell s 1773 piece Observations Relative to the Manufacture of Paper and Printed Books in the Province of Pennsylvania These are complemented by influential writings by such figures as A H Munsell Walter Benjamin and Jacques Derrida along with a generous representation of recent scholarship Each reading is introduced by short remarks explaining the rationale for its selection and the principal matters covered and the book is supplemented with a helpful bibliography This volume is an indispensable tool for museum curators conservators and students and teachers of the conservation of works of art on paper

Old Master Prints and Drawings Carlo James,Marjorie B. Cohn,1997 This long awaited English edition of Manuale per la conservazione e il restauro di disegni e stampe antichi 1991 offers a clear and complete manual for the preservation and conservation of old master prints and drawings The authors throw light on the historical and scientific backgrounds concerning the problems of restoration techniques of arts on paper from 1150 when paper was first introduced in Europe until the middle of the nineteenth century The book is indispensable for anyone occupied with the study and conservation of old prints and drawings This richly illustrated first English edition is revised and brought fully up to date The Care of

Prints and Drawings Margaret Holben Ellis,2016-12-15 The 2nd edition of The Care of Prints and Drawings provides practical straightforward advice to those responsible for the preservation of works on paper ranging from curators facility managers conservators registrars collection care specialists private collectors artists or students of museum studies visual arts art history or conservation A greater emphasis is placed on preventive conservation a trend among collecting institutions which reflects the growing recognition that scarce resources are best expended on preventing deterioration rather than on less effective measures of reversing it Expanded and richly illustrated chapters include Supports for Prints and Drawings discusses the properties of parchment and paper and introduces the general preservation needs and conservation problems of all works on paper regardless of their media Conservation Problems Related to the Paper Support of Prints and Drawings presents a guide to recognizing the symptoms and diagnosing the causes of damage specific to paper Conservation Problems

Related to the Materials and Techniques of Prints describes the conservation problems that affect certain printmaking materials and arise from specific processes Conservation Problems Related to the Materials and Techniques of Drawings focuses on the various materials used to create marks on paper Item Level Collection Protection Envelopes Sleeves Folders Enclosures Mats Boxes Frames and Furniture discusses measures taken for prints and drawings so that they can better withstand the rigors of handling examination exhibition travel and adverse environmental conditions Preventive Conservation for Prints and Drawings describes how the integration of a comprehensive Collections Care Program into a Collections Management Policy can reduce the need for item level conservation treatments Basic Paper Conservation Procedures provides instructions on how to stabilize damaged works How to Make Starch Paste and Methyl Cellulose Adhesive and Suppliers of Paper Conservation Materials and Equipment are appended as well as a Glossary American Paintings at Harvard Theodore E. Stebbins, Melissa Renn, 2008-01-01 This volume features nearly 500 paintings watercolors pastels and miniatures from Harvard University's storied yet little known collection of American art These works many unpublished are drawn from the Harvard Art Museums the University Portrait Collection the Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology and other entities and date from the early colonial years to the mid 19th century Highlights include a rare group of 17th century portraits along with important paintings by Robert Feke John Singleton Copley Charles Willson Peale Gilbert Stuart and Washington Allston in addition to works depicting western and Native American subjects by Alexandre de Batz Henry Inman and Alfred Jacob Miller among others Each work is accompanied by scholarly commentary that draws on extensive new research as well as a complete exhibition and reference history An introduction by Theodore E Stebbins Jr describes the history of the collection Lavishly illustrated in color this compendium is a testament to the nation's oldest collection of American art and an essential resource for scholars and collectors alike The Emergence of the Professional Watercolourist Greg Smith, 2018-01-12 This title was first published in 2002 Drawing on extensive primary research Greg Smith describes the shifting cultural identities of the English watercolour and the English watercolourist at the end of the eighteenth and the beginning of the nineteenth century His convincing narrative of the conflicts and alliances that marked the history of the medium and its practitioners during this period includes careful detail about the broader artistic context within which watercolours were produced acquired and discussed Smith calls into question many of the received assumptions about the history of watercolour painting His account exposes the unsatisfactory nature of the traditional narrative of watercolour painting's development into a high art form which has tended to offer a celebratory focus on the innovations and genius of individual practitioners such as Turner and Girtin rather than detailing the anxieties and aspirations that characterized the ambivalent status of the watercolourist The Emergence of the Professional Watercolourist is published with the assistance of the Paul Mellon Foundation Conservation of Cultural Heritage Hanna M. Szczepanowska, 2013-02-15 Conservation of Cultural Heritage covers the methods and practices needed for future museum professionals who will be working in various capacities with museum collections and artifacts It also assists current professionals in understanding the complex decision making processes that face conservators on a daily basis The uniqueness of this book lies in correlating the aspects of material science and the behaviour of artifacts in a museum environment It will be of special benefit to museum professionals not trained in conservation Covering a broad range of topics that are key to sound conservation in the museum Conservation of Cultural Heritage is an important tool for students and professionals alike in ensuring that best practice is followed in the preservation of important collections

American Drawings and Watercolors in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Kevin J. Avery, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2002 The Metropolitan Museum began acquiring American drawings and watercolors in 1880 just ten years after its founding Since then it has amassed more than 1 500 works executed by American artists during the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries in watercolor pastel chalk ink graphite gouache and charcoal This volume documents the draftsmanship of more than 150 known artists before 1835 and that of about 60 unidentified artists of the period It includes drawings and watercolors by such American masters as John Singleton Copley John Trumbull John Vanderlyn Thomas Cole Asher Brown Durand George Inness and James Abbott McNeill Whistler Because the 504 works illustrate such a wide range of media techniques and styles this publication is a veritable history of American drawing from the eighteenth through most of the nineteenth century Metropolitan Museum of Art website
