The Georgetown Set Gregg Herken, 2014-10-28 In the years after World War II, Georgetown's leafy streets were home to an unlikely group of Cold Warriors who helped shape American strategy. This coterie of affluent, well-educated and connected civilians guided the country for better and worse from the Marshall Plan through McCarthyism, Watergate and Vietnam. The Georgetown set included Phil and Kay Graham, husband and wife publishers of The Washington Post; Joe and Stewart Alsop, odd couple brothers who were among the country's premier political pundits; Frank Wisner, a driven, manic-depressive lawyer in charge of CIA covert operations; and a host of other diplomats, spies and scholars. Gregg Herken gives us intimate portraits of these dedicated and talented, if deeply flawed, individuals who navigated the Cold War years often over cocktails and dinner, with very real consequences reaching into the present day. Throughout, he illuminates the drama and fascination of that noble, congenial, curious old world in Joe Alsop's words, bringing this remarkable roster of men and women not only out into the open but vividly to life.

Leopardology Kivi Bernhard, 2009-10-01 Leopardology™: the art of Positive Predatory Thinking. Critical business strategy gleaned from the hunt of the African leopard. Critical business thinking and strategy gleaned from the hunting habits and techniques of the African leopard, perhaps the most successful predator on earth. Using the hunting habits and techniques of Africa's most successful predator, Leopardology™ draws metaphors of personal and business success that will simply leave you spellbound. Having the lion's share of market territories and clients to which corporations have been accustomed is no longer the case. Competitor predators are continually on the prowl for your market share and profit. On the plains of the African savannah, deficiencies of vision, strategy, trust and change management are often the indicators that lead alert predators to easy prey Not unlike the world of commerce in the bushlands of Africa if one is not hunting to survive one will simply survive to be hunted Tales That Touch Bettina Brandt,Yasemin Yildiz,2022-09-20
