shown me I don't know if I can claim to love you but compared to those who have meaninglessly spouted that word you have shown me more love than all of them combined She pauses a little while in thought then says Doug I would like to point out some proof of what I was saying about how you treat me and how special that makes me feel compared to all of the other men I've had to endure Oh Yes Here I am sitting within your reach for a long time while I'm only wearing a thin nightgown and you haven't made a single attempt to touch me more than to hug and kiss me He hesitates then says I'm just trying to treat you like I think a woman ought to be treated so I don't see how that makes me special I suppose another way to look at it is that I'm trying to treat you in a manner similar to how I would want to be treated if our roles were reversed Her eyes widen in surprise at that idea then she nods her head as she responds That makes a lot of sense and I greatly appreciate that you feel and think that way But let me assure you men do not treat women with respect courtesy and gentleness at least from my experience
