White Logic White Methods:

White Logic, White Methods Tukufu Zuberi, Eduardo Bonilla-Silva, 2008-05-02 Examines how the racial lenses of the social sciences and the subscription of social scientists to whites racial common sense have limited their understanding of racial matters and handicapped their capacity to appreciate the significance of the race effect they call it the racial stratification effect With an assemblage of leading scholars White Logic White Methods explores the possibilities and necessary dethroning of current social research practices and demands a complete overhaul of current methods towards a multicultural and pluralist approach to what we know think and question Readers in various social sciences will find useful the chapters in the collection but all will agree that the introductory and concluding chapters to the volume Towards a Definition of White Logic and White Methods and Telling the Real Tale of the Hunt Towards a Race Conscious Sociology of Racial Stratification are likely to become classics in the field of racial and ethnic relations Women's Human Rights and Migration Sital Kalantry, 2017-07-03 In Women's Human Rights and Migration Sital Kalantry examines the laws to ban sex selective abortion in the United States and India to argue for a transnational feminist legal approach to evaluating prohibitions on the practices of immigrant women that raise human rights concerns Beyond Recidivism Andrea Leverentz, Elsa Y. Chen, Johnna Christian, 2020-05-05 Understanding reentry experiences after incarceration Prison in the United States often has a revolving door with droves of formerly incarcerated people ultimately finding themselves behind bars again In Beyond Recidivism Andrea Leverentz Elsa Y Chen and Johnna Christian bring together a leading group of interdisciplinary scholars to examine this phenomenon using several approaches to research on recently released prisoners returning to their lives They focus on the social context of reentry and look at the stories returning prisoners tell including such key issues as when they choose to reveal or not their criminal histories Drawing on contemporary studies contributors examine the best ideas that have emerged over the last decade to understanding the challenges prisoners face upon reentering society Together they present a complete picture of prisoner reentry including real world recommendations for policies to ensure the well being of returning prisoners regardless of their past mistakes (Re)Envisioning Social Studies Education Research Sarah A. Mathews, 2024-05-01 This edited book is a continuation of Keith Barton's Research Methods in Social Studies Education 2006 one of the most popular texts in the Information Age's Research in Social Education series Re Envisioning Social Studies Education Research Current Epistemological and Methodological Expansions Deconstructions and Creations explores research in social studies education over the 15 years since Chapters offer insight into how researchers use different epistemological frameworks and non traditional or emergent methods to advance social studies scholarship The book is organized into two sections 1 methodology as epistemological stretches revisions and or entanglements and 2 emergent and non traditional methods in social studies research and practice Authors pull on diverse and emerging theoretical frameworks review recently published research and highlight their own experiences with inquiry in the field This text serves as a platform to explore the processes and products of diverse research decisions to engage the field in broader conversations that can rethink expand and disrupt social studies education research The intention is also to honor and center epistemological frameworks that have been marginalized in previous scholarship This text can serve as an entry point for graduate students and novice scholars while also helping seasoned researchers seek opportunities to expand their own work or mentor students

Antiracist Library and Information Science Kimberly Black,Bharat Mehra,2023-03-21 Critical scholarly and reflective perspectives on the theory practice and progress made towards achieving antiracism in the various domains of Library and Information Science and towards creating racial justice in communities through the work of information professionals

The Color of Love Elizabeth Hordge-Freeman,2015-10-30 The Color Of Love reveals the power of racial hierarchies to infiltrate our most intimate relationships Delving far deeper than previous sociologists have into the black Brazilian experience Elizabeth Hordge Freeman examines the relationship between racialization and the emotional life of a family Based on interviews and a sixteen month ethnography of ten working class Brazilian families this provocative work sheds light on how families simultaneously resist and reproduce racial hierarchies Examining race and gender Hordge Freeman illustrates the privileges of whiteness by revealing how those with blacker features often experience material and emotional hardships From parental ties to sibling interactions to extended family and romantic relationships the chapters chart new territory by revealing the connection between proximity to whiteness and the distribution of affection within families Hordge Freeman also explores how black Brazilian families particularly mothers rely on diverse strategies that reproduce negotiate and resist racism She frames efforts to modify racial features as sometimes reflecting internalized racism and at other times as responding to material and emotional considerations Contextualizing their strategies within broader narratives of the African diaspora she examines how Salvador s inhabitants perceive the history of the slave trade itself in a city that is referred to as the blackest in Brazil She argues that racial hierarchies may orchestrate family relationships in ways that reflect and reproduce racial inequality but black Brazilian families actively negotiate these hierarchies to assert their citizenship and humanity

The Ashgate Research Companion to Black Sociology Earl Wright II,Edward V. Wallace,2016-03-09 The Ashgate Research Companion to Black Sociology provides the most up to date exploration and analysis of research focused on Blacks in America Beginning with an examination of the project of Black Sociology it offers studies of recent events including the Stand Your Ground killing of Trayvon Martin the impact of Hurricane Katrina on emerging adults and efforts to change voting requirements that overwhelmingly affect Blacks whilst engaging with questions of sexuality and family life incarceration health educational outcomes and racial wage disparities Inspired by W E B Du Bois s charge of engaging in objective research that has a positive impact on society and organised around the themes of Social Inequities Blacks and Education Blacks and Health and Future Directions this timely volume brings together the latest interdisciplinary research to offer a broad overview of the issues currently faced by Blacks in

United States A timely significant research guide that informs readers on the social economic and physical condition of Blacks in America and proposes directions for important future research The Ashgate Research Companion will appeal to policy makers and scholars of Africana Studies Sociology Cultural Studies Anthropology and Politics with interests in questions of race and ethnicity gender and sexuality social inequalities health and education Handbook of Critical Education Research Michelle D. Young,Sarah Diem,2023-07-25 This handbook offers a contemporary and comprehensive review of critical research theory and methodology Showcasing the work of contemporary critical researchers who are harnessing and building on a variety of methodological tools this volume extends beyond qualitative methodology to also include critical quantitative and mixed methods approaches to research The critical scholars contributing to this volume are influenced by a diverse range of education disciplines and represent multiple countries and methodological backgrounds making the handbook an essential resource for anyone doing critical scholarship The book moves from the theoretical to the specific examining various paradigms for engaging in critical scholarship various methodologies for doing critical research and the political ethical and practical issues that arise when working as a critical scholar In addition to mapping the field contributions synthesize literature offer concrete examples and explore relevant contexts histories assumptions and current practices ultimately fostering generative thinking that contributes to future methodological and theoretical breakthroughs New as well as seasoned critical scholars will find within these pages exciting new ideas challenging questions and insights that spur the continuous evolution and grow the influence of critical research methods and theories in the education and human disciplines A Research Agenda for Leadership Learning and Development through Higher Education Susan R. Komives,Julie E. Owen,2023-06-01 Adopting a multilevel perspective this innovative Research Agenda offers a comprehensive and critical overview of research on all aspects of contemporary leadership education Bringing together enlightening contributions from experienced scholars of leadership education along with a team of early career critical scholars it examines essential dimensions of leadership education processes and outcomes and interrogates the knowledge bases that shape these dimensions The Rise of Victimhood Culture Bradley Campbell,Jason Manning,2018-03-07 The Rise of Victimhood Culture offers a framework for understanding recent moral conflicts at U S universities which have bled into society at large These are not the familiar clashes between liberals and conservatives or the religious and the secular instead they are clashes between a new moral culture victimhood culture and a more traditional culture of dignity Even as students increasingly demand trigger warnings and safe spaces many young people are quick to police the words and deeds of others who in turn claim that political correctness has run amok Interestingly members of both camps often consider themselves victims of the other In tracking the rise of victimhood culture Bradley Campbell and Jason Manning help to decode an often dizzying cultural milieu from campus riots over conservative speakers and debates around free speech to the election of Donald Trump Religious Freedom and Mass Conversion in India Laura Dudley Jenkins,2019-05-31 Hinduism is the largest religion in India encompassing roughly 80 percent of the population while 14 percent of the population practices Islam and the remaining 6 percent adheres to other religions The right to freely profess practice and propagate religion in India's constitution is one of the most comprehensive articulations of the right to religious freedom Yet from the late colonial era to the present mass conversions to minority religions have inflamed majority-minority relations in India and complicated the exercise of this right In Religious Freedom and Mass Conversion in India Laura Dudley Jenkins examines three mass conversion movements in India among Christians in the 1930s Dalit Buddhists in the 1950s and Mizo Jews in the 2000s Critics of these movements claimed mass converts were victims of overzealous proselytizers promising material benefits but defenders insisted the converts were individuals choosing to convert for spiritual reasons Jenkins traces the origins of these opposing arguments to the 1930s and 1940s when emerging human rights frameworks and early social scientific studies of religion posited an ideal convert an individual making a purely spiritual choice However she observes that India's mass conversions did not adhere to this model and therefore sparked scrutiny of mass converts' individual agency and spiritual sincerity Jenkins demonstrates that the preoccupation with converts' agency and sincerity has resulted in significant challenges to religious freedom One is the proliferation of legislation limiting induced conversions Another is the restriction of affirmative action rights of low-caste people who choose to practice Islam or Christianity Last incendiary rumors are intentionally spread of women being converted to Islam via seduction Religious Freedom and Mass Conversion in India illuminates the ways in which these tactics immobilize potential converts reinforce damaging assumptions about women lower castes and religious minorities and continue to restrict religious freedom in India today

Racism in Danish Welfare Work with Refugees Marta Padovan-Özdemir, Trine Øland, 2022-05-17 This book explores contemporary Danish relations of colonial complicity in welfare work with newly arrived refugees 1978-2016 as recursive histories that reveal new shapes and shades of racism Focussing on super and subordination in helping relations of postcoloniality the book displays the durability of coloniality and the workings of raceless racism in welfare work with refugees Its main contribution is the excavation of stock stories of colour blindness potentialising and compassion which help welfare workers invest in burying that which keeps haunting welfare work with refugees i.e. modern ghosts of difference docility and dignity The book dismantles the global myth of the Danish benevolent universalistic welfare state and it is of interest to every scholar and student who wants to make inquiries about Danish exceptionalism and the hidden interaction between past and present the visible and invisible in Danish welfare work with refugees

International Student Activism and the Politics of Higher Education CindyAnn Rose-Redwood, Reuben Rose-Redwood, 2024-03-19 From international tuition hikes and discriminatory immigration policies to racially motivated violence and geopolitical tensions international students encounter numerous political issues while studying abroad Yet it is often assumed that international students are politically passive and disengaged rather than actively contributing to the political life of higher education institutions and the host country more generally The present book challenges this assumption by bringing together the work of scholars from various fields of study to examine international student activism advocacy and political engagement in higher education settings Drawing upon different research approaches this book showcases scholarship exploring the multifaceted ways in which international students engage with the political as well how the policy environments and socio political atmospheres in both host and home countries shape these experiences Far from being passive bystanders international students have exercised their political agency through diverse forms of collective action over the past century and this edited collection calls for a renewed focus on the political dimensions of the international student experience

Glover,2009-07-16 This book is a critical examination of mainstream research on racial profiling Through qualitative analysis of interviews with people of color who have experienced racial profiling it offers an alternative understanding of racialized law and the traffic stop as the manifesta

Power and Privilege in the Learning Sciences Indigo Esmonde,Angela N. Booker,2016-12-01 Although power and privilege are embedded in all learning environments the learning sciences is dominated by individual cognitive theories of learning that cannot expose the workings of power Power and Privilege in the Learning Sciences Critical and Sociocultural Theories of Learning addresses the ways in which research on human learning can acknowledge the influence of differential access to power on the organization of learning in particular settings Written by established and emerging scholars in the learning sciences and related fields the chapters in this volume introduce connections to critical and poststructural race theories critical disability studies queer theory settler colonial theory and critical pedagogy as tools for analyzing dimensions of learning environments and normativity A vital resource for students and researchers in the fields of learning sciences curriculum studies educational psychology and beyond this book introduces key literature adapts theory for application in education and highlights areas of research and teaching that can benefit from critical theoretical methods

Rethinking Prison Reentry Tony Gaskew,2014-08-26 Rethinking Prison Reentry Transforming Humiliation into Humility describes a prison based education pedagogy designed to address a prevalent racial politics of shaming self segregation and transgenerational learned helplessness So many incarcerated black men face insurmountable psychosocial obstacles when attempting to make the successful transition back into ownership of their lives Tony Gaskew confronts the issue of redemption and reconciliation head on by critically examining the triads of culpability when it comes to crime and justice in America 1 of those who commit crimes 2 of those who enforce criminal laws and 3 of those who stand by and do nothing He explores the growth of a black counterculture of crime that has created modern day killing fields across urban neighborhoods and challenges the incarcerated black men trapped within its socially constructed lies helping them to draw upon the strength of their cultural privilege to transform from criminal offender into incarcerated student

Towards Anti-Racist Educational Research Delane A. Bender-Slack,Francis Godwyll,2024-04-08 Towards Anti Racist Educational Research Radical Moments and Movements is a call for educational researchers and teachers to engage in the work needed to be anti racist In the academy there is no place for neutrality when it comes to race One either endorses the idea of a racial hierarchy or that of racial equality Educators and researchers either believe problems are rooted in groups of people or locate the roots of problems in power and policies Therefore we can either allow racial inequities to continue or confront racial inequities Delane Bender Slack and Francis Godwyll work to confront those racial inequities in educational research As they continue to grapple with their role in radical moments and movements from various identities perspectives and positionalities they strive to identify their intellectual social and cultural labor in their research and in this writing as anti racist The editors define what it could mean to be anti racist in research methods projects and agendas and they pose the following questions How do we ask anti racist research questions How do we create anti racist curricula How do we design anti racist policies What does it mean to be racially humanizing educational researchers How do we intentionally work towards racial justice

Situating

Intersectionality Angelia R. Wilson, 2013-09-25 A new generation of political science scholars who are comfortable employing intersectional analysis are emerging and their work hones in directly on the complexity of politics governance and policy making in an increasingly small technologically connected ideologically nuanced global Public Square

Bodies out of Place Barbara Harris Combs, 2022-09-01 Bodies out of Place asserts that anti Black racism is not better than it used to be it is just performed in more nuanced ways Barbara Harris Combs argues that racism is dynamic so new theories are needed to help expose it The Bodies out of Place BOP theory she advances in the book offers such a corrective lens Interrogating several recent racialized events the Central Park birding incident the killing of Ahmaud Arbery sleeping while Black occurrences and others Combs demonstrates how the underlying belief that undergirds each encounter is a false presumption that Black bodies in certain contexts are out of place Within these examples she illustrates how even amid professions to color blindness fixed attitudes about where Black bodies belong in what positions at what time and with whom still predominate Combs describes a long historical pattern of White pushback against Black advancement and illuminates how each of the various forms of pushback is aimed at social control and regulation of Black bodies She describes overt and covert attempts to push Black bodies back into their presumed place in U S society While the pushback takes many forms each works to paint a narrative to justify rationalize and excuse continuing violence against Black bodies Equally important Combs celebrates the resilient Black agency that has resisted this subjugation

Rethinking Race and Ethnicity in Research Methods John H Stanfield II, 2016-06-03 This collection of original work demonstrates the new ways in which particular research methodologies are used valued and critiqued in the field of race and ethnic studies Contributing authors discuss the ways in which their personal and professional histories and experiences lead them to select and use particular methodologies over the course of their careers They then provide the intellectual histories strengths and weaknesses of these methods as applied to issues of race and ethnicity and discuss the ethical practical and epistemological issues that have influenced and challenged their methodological principles and applications Through these rigorous self examinations this text presents a dynamic example of how scholars engage both research methodologies and issues of social justice and ethics

This volume is a successor to Stanfield's landmark Race and Ethnicity in Research Methods
