Where Do I Find Auditions:

Where Do I Find Auditions? David Levin, 2014-12-02 After years of acting training you're ready to audition but you don't have an agent. Or you do have an agent but he isn't sending you out as much as you'd like. Roughly 90% of actors find work without an agent. Even if you do have an agent, don't sit back and wait for him to get you work. You have to hustle. In Where Do I Find Auditions, working NYC actor David Neal Levin passes on the knowledge of years of experience on how to find auditions in a clear, concise guide. Inside you will also find 9 interviews with agents and casting directors offering their insights on the audition process in addition on where to find them. Don't miss another opportunity because you didn't know where to look.

Musical Theatre Auditions and Casting Neil Rutherford, 2014-03-10 Musical theatre is a tough and over-crowded industry. Yet despite the huge competition many performers find auditioning difficult with little knowledge of what the directors, creative teams and producers are looking for or how to win the panel over with their unique talent. As a leading international casting director, Neil Rutherford has seen thousands of hopefuls audition over the years. Uniquely, he also understands what it is like to audition from his years as a professional actor in musical theatre. This book provides a unique perspective on the musical theatre audition process and how to improve the chances of landing a role. With wit, humour and insight, Neil Rutherford guides the reader through the crucial elements of musical theatre auditions, opening up the process of casting and auditioning to the thousands of hopefuls trying to secure work in this industry every year, as well as anyone involved in musical theatre. With a foreword by Tony award-winning director Bartlett Sher, the book also contains contributions from some of the world's leading directors and musical directors including Sir Richard Eyre and Jerry Mitchell, adding further valuable insight from those at the centre of the musical theatre world. This book is a vital tool for anyone hoping to improve their audition chances and survive in the world of musical theatre.

Auditions Richard Evans, 2014-04-24 Auditions are an integral part of every performer's life. From getting into drama school through to a successful career in an overcrowded industry, Auditions: The Complete Guide offers crucial advice, resources and tried and tested techniques to maximise success before, during and after each audition. Written by an established casting director and former actor with over 35 years of experience on a wide range of productions, this book offers a wealth of personal and professional insights covering drama and theatre schools, showcases, amateur and professional auditions, contemporary, classical, physical and musical theatre, television and commercial castings, movie screen tests and self-taping, voice overs and radio drama, networking, recalls and workshops, handling job offers and rejection. From training to triumph, nerves to networking and camera to casting couch, Auditions: The Complete Guide is an entertaining, accessible and indispensable read for every performer. Richard Evans CDG has cast a wide variety of productions in all media since 1989 and prior to this worked as an actor for 10 years. He has devised and presented audition and career development workshops at many top drama and theatre schools worldwide and at the Actors Centre London and has written Auditions: A Practical Guide.
