Literature in Transition, 1940-1950* Christopher Vials,2017-12-28 In the aftermath of World War II the United States emerged as the dominant imperial power and in US popular memory the Second World War is remembered more vividly than the American Revolution American Literature in Transition 1940 1950 provides crucial contexts for interpreting the literature of this period Essays from scholars in literature history art history ethnic studies and American studies show how writers intervened in the global struggles of the decade the Second World War the Cold War and emerging movements over racial justice gender and sexuality labor and de colonization One recurrent motif is the centrality of the political impulse in art and culture Artists and writers participated widely in left and liberal social movements that fundamentally transformed the terms of social life in the twentieth century not by advocating specific legislation but by changing underlying cultural values This book addresses all the political impulses fueling art and literature at the time as well as the development of new forms and
