Skunk Off Home Recipe:

East Texas Serendipity Neal Murphy, 2015-09-26 This book explores the answers to life's many questions such as the following: Who was Sam Hill? What is Adams' off ox? What is the difference between a redneck and a good ole boy? It is a lead pipe since you will enjoy reading this book because it is what it is: a fair to middling rule of thumb bird in the hand explanation of the questions that you have always wanted to ask but never got around to. Recipe for a Happy Life John C. Zappia, 2015-08-17 RECIPE FOR A HAPPY LIFE is a collection of compelling short stories which will evoke emotions to make you laugh, cry, or think. Stories which reflect life's realities, fantasies, and fiction. See how balancing these emotions creates comfort and happiness in your life. Stories of those special moments in a person's life which anyone can easily relate to. A book that can be read at any point beginning, middle, end, and still be enjoyable. An easy readable book that will remind you of all those unforgettable times in life. Healers of the Wild Shannon K. Jacobs, 2003 Who takes care of hurt wild animals? Veterinarians, Zoos, State wildlife agencies. Only wildlife rehabilitators legally care for wild animals. Every year they heal hundreds of thousands of sick, orphaned, and injured animals and release as many of them back to the wild as possible. Learn about these unsung heroes and the incredible creatures they care for: from bats and raccoons to whales and loons. Healers of the Wild is also filled with advice for individuals with instructions on how to be helpful, including a series of Wildlife Fact Sheets from the Fund for Animals. This new edition has been fully revised, including a greatly expanded and updated resource section. Anyone who might ever be tempted to take a baby bird home or to stop to help an injured fox would benefit from reading this book and learning how to safely help wildlife. Book jacket. A Lifetime Nature Walk Andrew Dequasie, 2000-09-20 This book is a collection of essays and anecdotes about 19 animals, 18 birds, 15 fish, 10 reptiles, 31 insects, 39 plants, 17 trees, and 6 other subjects encountered in nature by the author, mostly in the region from West Virginia to Vermont. Hopefully, it lends personality to these subjects and leaves the reader with a sense of the changing view of our natural world during the 20th century. It is not encyclopedic, being limited to things the author has had experience with. On the other hand, it contains many off-beat details not to be found in other references. Among the stone-age people's one of the important duties the hunter had to fulfill when he returned home was to tell the other members of his tribe where he had been, what he had seen, and what he had done. That is what the author attempts to do in this book. For instance, he tells of dealings with raccoons, both tame and wild. How to rescue a skunk from a storm drain. Home-made animal traps. What constitutes a successful backwoods fox hunt. How kingfishers and sparrow hawks mourn their dead. Why bluebirds are scarce. Why a killdeer will tease a dog. Where to find bluegills in the Ohio River or smelt in the Niagara River. A box turtle's prediction of dry weather and rain. Living where copperheads live. Playing with garter snakes. How to find a bee tree. The very different lives and habits of hornets, brown wasps, and mud dauber wasps. Sleeping with bedbugs. The psychological warfare of the deer fly. When to look for snow fleas. How to recognize chamomile by its aroma. The scarcity of ginseng. Trouble with jack
