Oscar Wilde's Aesthetic Education Leanne Grech, 2019-04-06 This book focuses on the role that the Oxford classical curriculum has had in shaping Oscar Wilde's aestheticism It positions Wilde as a classically trained intellectual and outlines the path he took to gain recognition as a writer and promoter of the aesthetic movement This narrative is conveyed through a broad range of literary sources including Wilde's travel poetry American lectures and canonical works like The Critic as Artist The Soul of Man The Picture of Dorian Gray and De Profundis This study proposes that Wilde approached aestheticism as a personalised self directed learning experience a mode of self culture which could be used to maintain an intellectual life outside of the university It also explores Wilde's thoughts on education and considers the significance of male friendship at Oxford and in Wilde's life and literature
