Henrietta Moore, Arthur Kay, 2025-08-29 Explore the financial social ethical and environmental impacts of our obsession with and dependency on cars Learn how to change the way we use them Roadkill Unveiling the True Cost of Our Toxic Relationship with Cars by Professor Henrietta Moore and Arthur Kay explores the philosophical implications of car culture as well as the practical impacts it has on your money your taxes your neighborhood your planet your health and your happiness While the car has been marketed as a symbol of freedom the authors convincingly argue that it has limited the flourishing of our cities and restricted our choices How can we fix our toxic relationship with cars The authors offer a new way of thinking that promises to multiply your choices improve your city and expand your freedoms Inside the book Jaw dropping real world examples of the human and monetary costs imposed by cars including the fact that cars have killed 60 to 80 million people since their invention more than the deaths of WWI and WWII combined Philosophical arguments explaining how car centric cities restrict the freedoms of drivers and non drivers alike A catalogue of ideas and approaches for urban designers transport planners policymakers and mayors Practical recommendations for all contexts for you your family your neighborhood your town or city and your national government Critiques of the myths around electric cars and autonomous cars providing readers with a comprehensive understanding of the implications of this emerging frontier Ideas on how we can re frame our relationship with the car The authors recognize they can be useful machines when used intentionally and thoughtfully invited into our lives Over 45 figures original illustrations diagrams and colour photographs Roadkill is a persuasive and illuminating call to action for city dwellers drivers environmentalists urbanists and policymakers anyone

Reporter ,2007 Making Great Decisions in Business and Life David R. Henderson, Charles L. Hooper, 2006 The phrase work smarter not harder has been repeatedly ridiculed in the Dilbert comic strip and elsewhere not because it is a bad idea but because it is thrown like a brick lifesaver to drowning employees To tell someone to work smarter is like telling someone to be happier healthier and richer It s not much help to merely repeat the objective what people need is a plan for achieving the objective In Making Great Decisions we show our readers how to achieve their objectives We write to help those in business and those in the business of life i e everyone to work smarter Our ideas are both simple and powerful We offer a better way to look at problems so that the solutions are easier to find We help supplement our readers clear thinking by summarizing some of the most powerful techniques we have discovered Have you ever driven through corn country From a distance all you see are corn stalks and more corn stalks in a jumbled mess Then suddenly when you get closer your perspective changes and you can see down the rows and realize that the corn was planted perfectly in straight lines Your perception of the crop changes from a messy jumble to a clear picture simply because you re in the right spot This book puts readers in that ideal spot So many problems seem like hopeless jumbles but then when you start using the techniques we discuss here they start to look as straightforward as the straightest line in an Iowa cornfield What motivated us to write this book is that over the years both of us have regularly come across people in organizations often bright people with MBAs or other graduate degrees who don t think they have the time energy or skills to make good decisions They have many clues but don t know how to put them together They regularly face situations that they could analyze with some of the tools they learned in their courses but they don t realize that We don t hold ourselves apart from this group and stories of our successes and failures are sprinkled throughout Making Great Decisions in Business and Life Publisher s Website Bush on the
