Reconciling Nature Robert M. Myers, 2019-10-30 Reconciling Nature maps the complex views of the environment that are evident in celebrated American novels written between the Centennial Celebration of 1876 and the end of the Second World War During this period which includes the Progressive era and the New Deal Americans held three contradictory views of the natural world a recognition of nature s vulnerability to the changes brought by industrialism a fear of the power of nature to destroy human civilization and a desire to make nature useful Robert M Myers argues they reconciled these conflicting views through nature nostalgia policing of wilderness areas and through strategies of control borrowed from the social sciences Myers combines environmental history with original readings of eight novels producing fresh perspectives on Mark Twain s Adventures of Huckleberry Finn Stephen Crane s Maggie Kate Chopin s The Awakening Upton Sinclair s The Jungle Mary Austin s The Ford Theodore Dreiser s An American Tragedy Zora Neale Hurston s Their Eyes Were Watching God and William Faulkner s Go Down Moses While previous ecocritical works have focused on proto environmentalism in classic works of literature Reconciling Nature explores the ambivalence within these texts demonstrating how they reproduce views of nature as threatened threatening and useful The epilogue examines the environmental ideologies associated with the development and deployment of the first atomic bomb
