Holt, 1885 The Tangled Web They Weave Ivan L. Preston, 1994 Ivan L. Preston recognized as a preeminent scholar of the legal dimensions of American advertising has written The Tangled Web They Weave for the ordinary consumer as well as for advertisers and trade regulators. His frank aim is to demonstrate how advertising can better serve its audience. Advertising, Preston points out, is full of falsity that is quite legal. Indeed, clever presentation of lies can make advertising entertaining to consumers, and Preston provides lively examples and anecdotes of such cases. The problem with falsity in advertising, he argues, is not so much with the bald lie as it is with deception. It is in this thicket of implied claims that he shows us the dangers and indicates the need for regulatory adjustment. Preston takes us down the slippery slope from the high ground of honest product claims to the unscrupulous bottom of the barrel claims that are wholly false. Along the way, he documents the subtle misrepresentations, half and lesser truths, and exploitations of our gullibility that abound in contemporary advertising. The cases he describes are sometimes comic and sometimes shocking and infuriating. Preston's agenda is not merely to cry foul. He sees advertising as performing not only a legitimate but an important public service. It is in all our interests, therefore, to perfect and not just pillory. As he concludes, It is the time to see a way to serve society by creating a standard of personal and corporate credibility under which all advertisers, regulators, and consumers should want to live. Quote, 1948

The Life of Saul Bellow, Volume 2 Zachary Leader, 2019-12-03 The second volume in the life of literary giant Saul Bellow vividly capturing a personal life that was always tumultuous and a career that never ceased being triumphant. Bellow at forty-nine is at the pinnacle of American letters, rich, famous, critically acclaimed. The expected trajectory is one of decline. Volume 1 rises, volume 2 falls. Bellow never fell, producing in the latter half of his life some of his greatest fiction: Mr Sammler's Planet, Humboldt's Gift, winning two more National Book Awards, a Pulitzer Prize, and the Nobel Prize. At eighty, he wrote his last story; at eighty-five, he wrote Ravelstein. In this volume, his life away from the desk, including his love life, is if anything more dramatic than in the first. In the public sphere, he is embroiled in controversy over foreign affairs, race, religion, education, social policy, the state of culture, the fate of the novel. In this stunning second volume, Zachary Leader shows that Bellow's heroic energy and will were present to the very end of his life. His immense achievement and its cost to himself and others continue to be worth the examination of this vivid work of literary scholarship.

Melvin Laird and the Foundation of the Post-Vietnam Military, 1969-1973 Richard A. Hunt, 2015 Examines the former Congressman Melvin Laird's efforts to reconstitute the Department of Defense during the last years of the Vietnam War. Laird acted to mitigate the adverse effects of the Vietnam War on the department and to prepare the nation's armed forces for the future. Foremost was the transition from a conscripted military to an all-volunteer force, a fundamental policy shift that ended an unpopular and inequitable draft system.

Her Tower of Babel Daphne Balinda, 2021-08-30 Brokenness causes us to do one of two things: either we build towers of prominence, edifices with our names lifted high to be like God, or keep so busy with all the games of life that we never have time to think about the most important game of life. In other words, we are running away from God with all our busyness achievement and performance And if the truth were known we often like it that way Xandra and Sean looked good together and were potentially good for each other but how could they be so ill suited for each other She was a smart ambitious and high flying executive when she was swept off her feet by the seemingly eligible gorgeous Sean He promised her the world and against all wisdom she dared to dream He demanded high standards of service and she gave it heartily Sean raised the bar with every achievement and she attributed it to his high standards His demands gradually took their toll then she discovered that she was not the only one in his life and she was not allowed to confront that issue Muzzled Xandra had fallen into the dark abyss of despair feeling her prayers returned unanswered She had been confronted with the trifecta of loss of self confidence treachery and was facing the loss of family This was the dungeon of the used and abused Her choices succumb to fear and die in bondage or stand courageously against all odds and live The Satanic War on the Christian Vol.2 The Destruction from Satan & Demons Billy Crone,2018-07-17 As a born again Christian the moment you got saved you entered into a spiritual war against a demonic host whose sole purpose is to destroy you and extinguish your effectiveness for Jesus Christ This is The Satanic War on the Christian and it s been raging on for the last 6 000 years But many Churches refuse to talk about this conflict let alone equip others who are in the midst of it Therefore this four volume book study The Satanic War on the Christian not only reveals the shocking reality of this supernatural battle we are in as Christians but it also exposes the seductive weapons traps and attacks the devil and his evil emissaries use against us to keep us from becoming a mighty army for Almighty God In this book The Satanic War on the Christian Vol 2 The Destruction from Satan Demons you will have your eyes opened to such truths as The Destruction of the Casual Christian the Cultural Christian Compromising Christian Corruptive Christian Doubting Christian and Depressing Christian Tangled Journeys Lori D. Callaghan first became personally acquainted when both worked as reporters for the Toronto Star in the early 1920 s Later in Paris during that memorable summer of 1929 they ran into each other again and experienced a fast paced period of verbal gymnastics one upmanship and boxing rounds Fraser Sutherland has written a carefully researched perspective and highly readable comparative study of two great authors Ernest Hemingway and Morley Callaghan He begins with a fascinating discussion of the lives of these two men each so different from the other Callaghan was born into a Roman Catholic family in Toronto spent his summers on Georgian Bay studied Law at the University of Toronto and went on to become a professional highly respected and established Canadian writer Hemingway s life was one of action in the Italian Campaign of World WAR I he received 227 wounds from a mortar he was involved in two plane crashes served in the Spanish Civil War and like his father committed suicide Throughout this lifetime of frenetic and often painful activity Hemingway wrote and his novels and shorts stories achieved international acclaim In discussing the literary output of the two men Fraser Sutherland s extensive knowledge of his subject and easy style show up to best advantage He is of the opinion that the best of Callaghan s writing consists of two superb parable novels such is My Beloved and More Joy in Heaven a dozen fine short stories and an excellent memoir That Summer in Paris Hemingway he praises for having restored order and clarity to our use of the English Language for having written one of the best novels of our time The Sun Also Rises the best Romance A Farewell to Arms and perhaps a dozen of the best short stories in existence Throughout their work Sutherland shows how Callaghan and Hemingway share common symbols the smashed man the lake the river the victimized woman And they share a common style a depiction in simple language of the barebones of the world in which we live Publisher
