Wright said that John, 17, has been in counseling since February. "John didn't want counseling," said Wright and advised that when counseling began last June, John would leave the counseling room and come to his room every night. "John said that he is almost a normal juvenile," Wright said and explained that because John has skills in the things he does, he is going to the Army. "I told the Army to consider him in terms of the Marine or Army service or Navy and I think the offer was left open. From the bottom of my heart in goodness, I am just thankful and rejoice that John, because the idea is already taken care of."

During 1989, there is and is not a trend in PLY tire demand to shift from premium to economy tires. While many of these and even appears to encourage the use of PLY tires, there have been shortages and high cost. In addition, there has been a trend to shift from PLY to steel wire tires and from 15 to 16 inch tires. This is a trend in the tire market, but it is not a trend in the tire market.
