The Bābur-nāma in English Babur (Emperor of Hindustan), 1921 101 Middle Eastern Tales and Their Impact on Western Oral Tradition Ulrich Marzolph, 2020-08-18 A comprehensive exploration of the Middle Eastern roots of Western narrative tradition Against the methodological backdrop of historical and comparative folk narrative research 101 Middle Eastern Tales and Their Impact on Western Oral Tradition surveys the history dissemination and characteristics of over one hundred narratives transmitted to Western tradition from or by the Middle Eastern Muslim literatures i e authored written works in Arabic Persian and Ottoman Turkish For a tale to be included Ulrich Marzolph considered two criteria that the tale originates from or at least was transmitted by a Middle Eastern source and that it was recorded from a Western narrator s oral performance in the course of the nineteenth or twentieth century The rationale behind these restrictive definitions is predicated on Marzolph s main concern with the long lasting effect that some of the Oriental narratives exercised in Western popular tradition those tales that have withstood the test of time Marzolph focuses on the originally Oriental tales that became part and parcel of modern Western oral tradition Since antiquity the Orient constitutes the quintessential Other vis vis the European cultures While delineation against this Other served to define and reassure the Self the Orient also constituted a constant source of fascination attraction and inspiration Through oral retellings numerous tales from Muslim tradition became an integral part of European oral and written tradition in the form of learned treatises medieval sermons late medieval fabliaux early modern chapbooks contemporary magazines and more In present times when national narcissisms often acquire the status of strongholds delineating the Us against the Other it is imperative to distinguish document visualize and discuss the extent to which the West is not only indebted to the Muslim world but also shares common features with Muslim narrative tradition 101 Middle Eastern Tales and Their Impact on Western Oral Tradition is an important contribution to this debate and a vital work for scholars students and readers of folklore and fairy tales The American Drug Culture Thomas S. Weinberg, Gerhard Falk, Professor Gerhard J Falk, Ursula Adler Falk, 2017-12-14 KEY FEATURES Two opening chapters introduce readers to the theories and perspectives used by social scientists to study drugs and alcohol and to the larger trends in legal and illegal use of controlled substances Six chapters on alcohol provide comprehensive coverage of the most widely used and abused drug in America Lively discussions of alcohol and drugs in American popular culture brings the topic to life and relatable Two appendices contain case histories from the authors field research of individuals with alcohol and substance use disorders Church Papers Leonard Woolsey Bacon, 1877

Emerson in Iran Roger Sedarat, 2019-06-01 Examines the impact of Persian poetry in the work of Ralph Waldo Emerson Emerson in Iran is the first full length study of Persian influence in the work of the seminal American poet philosopher and translator Ralph Waldo Emerson Extending the current trend in transnational studies back to the figural origins of both the United States and Iran Roger Sedarat s insightful comparative readings of Platonism and Sufi mysticism reveal how Emerson managed to reconcile through verse two countries so seemingly different in religion and philosophy By tracking various rhetorical strategies through a close interrogation of Emerson's own writings on language and literary appropriation Sedarat exposes the development of a latent but considerable translation theory in the American literary tradition He further shows how generative Persian poetry becomes during Emerson's nineteenth century and how such formative effects continue to influence contemporary American poetry and verse translation This is the book on this subject I have been waiting for Indeed Sedarat goes further than satisfying curiosity about familiar but undertheorized figures texts and traditions he also reveals ones that I didn't know I should know and care about His prose is at once lucid and learned He manages with great tact and insight to move from poet to poet poem to poem line to line across time and tradition so that the reader remains oriented to the idea at hand and moreover capable of grasping its relevance to the project and its broader significance for our thinking about the legacy of Emerson's writing and thought David LaRocca author of Emerson's English Traits and the Natural History of Metaphor THE GOSPEL OF JOHN Original Version - Volume II translated by James David Audlin, 2014-02 The only narrative about Jesus by eyewitnesses this is also one of the world's greatest literary works The unfinished text was spirited off to Sinope when the author was sent into exile Even there the hand of Rome nearly destroyed it Rescued 35 years later the author's spiritual heirs published it While in Sinope some pages got lost or disordered After publication various editors changed the manuscript repeatedly to suit the changing doctrines of early Christianity even adding spurious new material Thus the standard text is an inspiring mess but still a mess This translation restores not the unfinished original text but the masterpiece the author sought to compose a first hand account of a real man sent to urge humanity to accept God's will set down before doctrine repackaged him as an incarnate deity Volume One contains the carefully restored text and a history of the gospel Volume Two includes commentaries that burnish this masterpiece for the modern reader The Philogelos or Laughter-Lover B. Baldwin, 2024-09-23 Wine and Identity Matt Harvey, Leanne White, Warwick Frost, 2014-01-10 In an increasingly competitive global market winemakers are seeking to increase their sales and wine regions to attract tourists To achieve these aims there is a trend towards linking wine marketing with identity Such an approach seeks to distinguish wine products whether wine or wine tourism from their competitors by focusing on cultural and geographical attributes that contribute to the image and experience In essence marketing wine and wine regions has become increasingly about telling stories engaging and provocative stories which engage consumers and tourists and translate into sales This timely book examines this phenomena and how it is leading to changes in the wine and tourism industries for the first time It takes a global approach drawing on research studies from around the world including old and new world wine regions The volume is divided into three parts The first branding investigates cases where established regions have sought to strengthen their brands or newer regions are striving to create effective emerging brands The second heritage considers cases where there are strong linkages between cultural heritage and wine marketing The third section terroir explores how a sense of place is inherent in winescapes and regional identities and is increasingly being used as a distinctive selling proposition This significant volume showcasing the connections between place identity variety and wine will be valuable reading for students researchers and academics interested in tourism marketing and wine studies
