Inspire! Lead!*

RoseAnne O'Brien Vojtek, Robert J. Vojtek, 2009-05-05 The authors remind leaders that the first step in motivating others is changing themselves. This practical book uses case studies, examples, and reflective activities to provide leaders with the knowledge, skills, and strategies to create school cultures in which teachers can find purpose, hope, enjoyment, and a sense of belonging and competency. Dennis Sparks, Emeritus Executive Director National Staff Development Council. The Vojteks write lucidly about school improvement, offering realistic, down-to-earth cases and well-stated approaches to change based solidly in cognitive and social psychology. They detail how school leaders can use ten motivational strategies to achieve improved student performance. Richard A. Schmuck, Professor Emeritus, University of Oregon. Author Practical Action Research. Discover how your learning community can tap into greater creativity, talent, and expertise. This resource shows how leaders can transform learning communities into high-performing collegial communities where teachers collaborate for continuous school improvement, are passionate about teaching, and are valued as professionals. Based on motivational theory and the authors' optimal performance model, this volume presents 10 concrete motivational strategies for fostering a culture in which educators work together to fulfill a common purpose. Each chapter includes an authentic case study and reflective questions to help readers understand the conditions needed for implementation, as well as a Next Steps section that offers recommendations and ideas. Participants are able to direct and strengthen their efforts toward successful achievement through Positive interdependence, Reciprocal relationships, Shared decision making, Professional learning, Mutual responsibility. Detailed and insightful. Motivate! Inspire! Lead! is the go-to guide for developing a dynamic learning community that balances support for a positive school culture and continuous school improvement with the individual needs of each member of the school community. Evaluating Early Reading Assessments Robert Douglas Carpenter, 2003

Developing Advanced Literacy in First and Second Languages Mary J. Schleppegrell, M. Cecilia Colombi, 2005-04-11 This book addresses the linguistic challenges faced by diverse populations of students at the secondary and post-secondary levels as they engage in academic tasks requiring advanced levels of reading and writing. Learning to use language in ways that meet academic expectations is a challenge for students who have had little exposure and opportunity to use such language outside of school. Although much is known about emergent literacy in the early years of schooling, much less has been written about the development of advanced literacy as students move into secondary education and beyond Developing Advanced Literacy in First and Second Languages Meaning With Power brings together work on first and second language acquisition and emphasizes the importance of developing advanced literacy in the first language such as Spanish for bilingual students as well as English spans a range of theoretical orientations and analytic approaches drawing on work in systemic functional linguistics genre theory and sociocultural perspectives addresses the content areas of science history and language arts provides specific information about genres and grammatical features in these content areas and presents suggestions for teacher education What unites the contributors to this volume is their shared commitment to a view of literacy that emphasizes both the social contexts and the linguistic challenges The chapters collected in this volume contribute in important ways to research and pedagogy on advanced literacy development for the multilingual and multicultural students in today s classrooms This book is particularly useful for researchers and students in language and education applied linguistics and others concerned with issues and challenges of advanced literacy development in first and second languages English Teaching Forum ,2000 Speech, Writing, and Sign Naomi S. Baron,1981 Forum ,1982 Creating Literacy Instruction for All Students Thomas G. Gunning,2005 With its inclusive view of literacy Creating Literacy Instruction for All Studentsemphasizes methods that have been validated by research and practice while delivering the basics of all major aspects of reading and writing The Fifth Edition of this best selling book continues to be a comprehensive practical text that provides its readers with step by step guidance for teaching reading and writing Written by distinguished author Tom Gunning this text features sample lessons for virtually every major literacy skill strategy and offers numerous reinforcement suggestions and generous listings of materials With its careful balance between the theory and the practice readers are always given the theories behind the methods encouraging them to choose adapt and construct their own approaches as they create a balanced program of literacy instruction Special emphasis has been given to adapting instruction for English language learners struggling readers and writers and special needs students throughout the book Unlike comparable texts the new edition stresses effective steps for closing the gap between achieving and struggling readers as mandated by the No Child Left Behind legislation and Reading First Teaching Content Reading and Writing Martha Rapp Ruddell,1993 56th Yearbook of the National Reading Conference ,2007 Reading and Writing Bill Harp,Jo Ann Brewer,1991 Grade level 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 k p e i t The Tapestry of Popular Songs in 16th- and 17th-Century China Kathryn Lowry,2021-09-20 Popular songs in sixteenth and seventeenth century China form a rich and intriguing body of materials hardly studied so far in the English speaking world This book is about these songs and their impact on Chinese culture and literary practice It examines the tapestry books in which popular songs circulated how books shaped readers how books were shaped by a range of literacies and how arrangements of performance texts aided imitation and selection of words or phrases Publishing histories of the popular song collections bring to light how songs were duplicated for readers among the elite and sub elite The analysis of how popular songs bring together the high and the low is of special value for literary scholars and intellectual historians and challenges the traditional dichotomy between elite and popular culture Test Driven Linda Valli,2008-07-24 I don t always know students by face I know them by data an elementary curriculum specialist explains ruefully in this broad examination of how No Child Left Behind impacts schools and shapes teaching practice Capturing the changes teachers are experiencing especially in the areas of mathematics and reading the authors compare and contrast three schools with diverse student populations examining how they differ in school norms and structures professional roles and responsibilities curriculum staff development and teaching and learning Including rich observational data and personal accounts from educators this inside look at school reform Analyzes the effects of policies from multiple levels examining relationships among initiatives at the federal state district and local school levels Focuses on the impact that high stakes testing policies have on reading and mathematics instruction in 4th and 5th grades Provides teacher and principal perspectives on factors that influence how practitioners make sense of mediate and construct school policy
