That Went By Fast My First Hundred Years:

That Went By Fast Frank White, 2014-10-25 Ex logger and gas station owner Frank White says living to the age of one hundred is not all it's cracked up to be but it has some plusses When he trundles down to the local shopping centre in Pender Harbour pretty girls hug him and everybody in town seems to be glad he's lived another day But celebrity has its drawbacks when he was only fifty and still had most of his marbles people only wanted to know what was wrong with their car But Now that everything is starting to get hazy they're not satisfied unless I can tell them the meaning of life In this second memoir in two years centenarian White sifts through his lengthy adventures trying to live up to those expectations of wisdom before deciding Life just is But what a wild ride he takes us on Born at the start of the First World War and maturing during the Great Depression he worked variously as a pioneer freight hauler pioneer truck logger camp owner garment presser boat builder home builder excavating contractor garage mechanic and waterworks operator among other things Then in later life he married the sophisticated and well connected New Yorker writer Edith Iglauer and started a totally different way of life consisting of opera celebrity dinners and world travel His ironic observations on the differences between the two worlds make for fascinating and frequently hilarious reading

My First Hundred Years in Hollywood Jack L. Warner, 2017-04-20 On August 5 1958 Jack Warner spent six hours playing baccarat taking 4 000 from the tables at Cannes before stepping out into the night He drove home along a winding road in a sporty little Alfa Romeo and was negotiating a tricky turn when a truck leapt in front of him The Alfa was destroyed but Warner was saved thrown out the door to land forty feet from the burning car Around the world the newspapers told of the death of the king of Hollywood But Warner wasn't finished yet One of the true legends of the movie business Warner had wielded absolute power over his studio since the silent era He produced Casablanca and The Jazz Singer he feuded with Errol Flynn and gave the green light to What Ever

Happened to Baby Jane starring Joan Crawford and Bette Davis As the studio system crumbled Warner's control remained unquestioned and in this engaging autobiography he shows the man behind the crown Jack L Warner is portrayed by Stanley Tucci in the Ryan Murphy TV series Feud My First Hundred Years Donald R. Fletcher, 2019-10-18 This is the self portrait of a missionary minister and teacher at age 100 sharing the adventures of his childhood in Korea exhilarating academic career at Princeton University and then a lifetime of purposeful dedication to the ministry and to teaching The author a poet and gifted prose writer engages the reader in beautiful landscapes of rural Korea a trans Siberian journey in the 1930s his pioneering ministry in the desert of northern Chile and the throes and conscientious commitment to civil rights in the 1960s His life partnership with Martha a church musician features prominently in the book as does their experience with her Alzheimer's disease The writer shares moments of epiphany and the discovery of God's will represented by turning points in a life lived on three continents More than just a memoir this is a book full of devotional meaning and spiritual inspiration for readers who enjoy a good story and excellent prose Here on the Coast Howard White, 2021-03-27 No matter where people live on the BC coast says Howard White they have certain shared experiences frustration with rain and ferries familiarity with gumboots bumbershoots seagull droppings and barnacles in the wrong places But each little community clings to its own sense of uniqueness and considers itself the true West Coast As a case in point White offers fifty funny sketches of life as he has come to know it in sixty odd years of living along that hundred mile stretch of monsoon prone shoreline ironically known as the Sunshine Coast Included is what must be one of the most admiring testaments ever written about the virtues of the old time outhouse fond remembrances of saltwater fishing when a bad day meant you didn't hook something in twenty minutes and explorers who stooped to naming islands after favourite racehorses We also meet a bouquet of characters including a lyrical logger known as Pete the Poet a diabolical seagoing remittance man the saintly Quaker philosopher Hubert Evans and White's barrier busting Aunt Jean who taught him the advantages of scientifically enlarging the truth Along with accounts of waste disposal wars and wry observations on modern technology Here On the Coast offers a West Coast counterpart to such favourites as Letters From Wingfield Farm and Sunshine Sketches of a Little Town One Hundred Years of Old Man Sage Jeffrey D. Anderson, 2003-01-01 Sherman Sage ca 1844-1943 was an unforgettable Arapaho man who witnessed profound change in his community and was one of the last to see the Plains black with buffalo As a young warrior Sage defended his band many times raided enemy camps saw the first houses go up in Denver was present at Fort Laramie for the signing of the 1868 treaty and witnessed Crazy Horse's surrender Later he visited the Ghost Dance prophet Wovoka and became a link in the spread of the Ghost Dance religion to other Plains Indian tribes As an elder Old Man Sage was a respected vigorous leader walking miles to visit friends and family even in his nineties One of the most interviewed Native Americans in the Old West Sage was a wellspring of information for both Arapahos and outsiders about older tribal customs Anthropologist Jeffrey D Anderson gathered information about Sage's long life from archives interviews recollections and published sources and has here woven it into a compelling biography We see different sides of Sage how he followed a traditional Arapaho life path what he learned about the Rocky Mountains and Plains what he saw and did as outsiders invaded the Arapahos homeland in the nineteenth century how he adjusted survived and guided other Arapahos during the early reservation years and how his legacy lives on today The remembrances of Old Man Sage s relatives and descendants of friends make apparent that his vision and guidance were not limited to his lifetime but remain vital today in the Northern Arapaho tribe

Robson,2015-04-25 When the first edition of Raincoast Chronicles was produced by a couple of novice publishers in the unlikely location of Pender Harbour in 1972 it boldly announced that it was going to put BC character on the record Printed in sepia ink and decorated with the rococo flourishes characteristic of that extravagant era the unclassifiable journal cum serial book about life on the BC coast struck a nerve and in time became something very close to what it set out to be a touchstone of British Columbia identity Soon the term Raincoast which had been coined by the editors was appearing on boats puppet theatres interior decorating firms and at least one other publishing enterprise Raincoast Chronicles also created another publishing enterprise Harbour Publishing Many of the stories that started out as articles in the Chronicles grew into books and so the White family was more or less forced to get into book publishing to deal with them That undertaking went on to publish some six hundred books and counting about every possible aspect of BC and in 2014 celebrated its fortieth anniversary in the biz To honour that occasion this special double issue of Raincoast Chronicles takes a tour down memory lane selecting a trove of the most outstanding stories in all those Harbour books and republishing them in one volume Here are some of Canada s most exciting and iconic writers Al Purdy Anne Cameron Edith Iglauer Patrick Lane and Grant Lawrence to start a long list Here also are stories of disasters at sea scarcely believable bush plane feats eerie events at coastal ghost towns and a First Nations elder who has seen so many sasquatches he finds them sort of boring Full of great drawings and photos this jumbo anniversary edition of Raincoast Chronicles is a feast of great Pacific Northwest storytelling The Privateer's-man One Hundred Years Ago Frederick Marryat,1846 The Privateer's Man One Hundred Years Ago by Captain Marryat Frederick Marryat,1846 My First Impression of China Wendy Liu,2014-09-03 Praise for My First Impression of China Today the sense of distance between China and the U S has greatly diminished We remain different societies with at least partially different values and expectations with each country's citizens feeling pride in their national accomplishments and each government looks on the other with what appears to be growing concern and perhaps fear. But these accounts by Washingtonians highlight that that is not all there is to the relationship between the United States and China. And perhaps these recollections tell us that governmental concerns are the least important aspect of the ties between our two countries. David Bachman, Professor, University of Washington. The year 2014 marks the thirty-fifth anniversary of the normalization of the diplomatic relations between the United States and China. Author Wendy Liu chose to honor that relationship by compiling thirty-five essays that detail some Americans' first impressions of their trip to China. My First Impression of China presents reflections from a group of prominent Washingtonians including those who established the Washington-Sichuan friendship state relationship and the Seattle-Chongqing sister city relationship. Their first trips to China took place from 1973 to 2008, covering the time the two countries cautiously opened liaison offices in each other's capitals to the time of the Beijing Olympics. My First Impression of China provides insight into the changes in American attitudes toward China as well as changes in China's political, cultural, and technological landscape.

Timeless tributes to the Jews of Eastern Europe, his stories of the shtetl combine the ancient traditions of Hasidic tales and Jewish humor with the aesthetics of Western literature. The 20 selections in this volume include some of Sholom Aleichem's finest tales among them Progress in Kasrilevke, Summer Romances, Birth There, No Dead, Someone to Envy, Three Widows, Homesick, On America, A Home Away from Home, To the Hot Springs, and the title story. My First 100 Marathons Jeffrey

Horowitz, 2011-02-15 Jeffrey Horowitz didn't expect to fall in love with marathoning, but that's just what happened. Eighteen years later he completed his one hundredth marathon. This book is Jeff's story, but it is also the story of everyone who loves to run. It includes his training, his injuries, his best times, his joys, his friends, his failures In some ways it s an unusual story How many other runners have finished 100 marathons In other ways it is the story of every runner who has found joy and satisfaction in a training routine in reaching a goal or in finishing a race Skyhorse Publishing as well as our Sports Publishing imprint is proud to publish a broad range of books for readers interested in sports books about baseball pro football college football pro and college basketball hockey or soccer we have a book about your sport or your team In addition to books on popular team sports we also publish books for a wide variety of athletes and sports enthusiasts including books on running cycling horseback riding swimming tennis martial arts golf camping hiking aviation boating and so much more While not every title we publish becomes a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller we are committed to publishing books on subjects that are sometimes overlooked by other publishers and to authors whose work might not otherwise find a home One hundred years ago Walter Barlow Stevens,1921 A study of prolonged fasting F.G.
