Jalāl al-Dīn al-Suyūṭī Rebecca Hernandez, 2017-09-29 This book offers a new theoretical perspective on the thought of the great fifteenth century Egyptian polymath Jalal al Din al Suyuti d 1505 In spite of the enormous popularity that al Suyuti's works continue to enjoy amongst scholars and students in the Muslim world he remains underappreciated by western academia This project contributes to the fields of Mamluk Studies Islamic Studies and Middle Eastern Studies not only an interdisciplinary analysis of al Suyuti's legal writing within its historical context but also a reflection on the legacy of the medieval jurist to modern debates The study highlights the discursive strategies that the jurist uses to construct his own authority and frame his identity as a superior legal scholar during a key transitional moment in Islamic history The approach aims for a balance between detailed textual analysis and big picture questions of how legal identity and religious authority are constructed negotiated and maintained Al Suyuti's struggle for authority as one of a select group of trained experts vested with the moral responsibility of interpreting God's law in society finds echoes in contemporary debates particularly in his native land of Egypt At a time when increasing numbers of people in the Arab world have raised their voices to demand democratic forms of government that nevertheless stay true to the principles of Shari'a the issue of who has the ultimate authority to interpret the sources of law to set legal norms and to represent the voice of Shari'a principles in society is still in dispute AlterNatives Ranu Samantrai, 2002 This is the history of the black British women's movement of the 1980s comprising women of African Caribbean and South Asian origin and its place in postwar British politics racism and feminism

Islam to explore the contribution they make to urgent questions about multicultural politics and the place of Muslims within Britain By focusing on class and its intersection with faith race and gender in identity and community formation it challenges the dichotomy of secular freedom versus religious oppression that constrains thinking about British Muslims and offers a more nuanced perspective on multicultural debates and controversies Writing British Muslims will appeal to academics and postgraduate and final year undergraduate students in the fields of postcolonial studies English studies and cultural studies
