The African American Male, Writing, and Difference W. Lawrence Hogue, 2012-02-01 In this wide ranging analysis W Lawrence Hogue argues that African American life and history is more diverse than even African American critics generally acknowledge Focusing on literary representations of African American males in particular Hogue examines works by James Weldon Johnson William Melvin Kelley Charles Wright Nathan Heard Clarence Major James Earl Hardy and Don Belton to see how they portray middle class Christian subaltern voodoo urban jazz blues postmodern and gay African American cultures Hogue shows that this polycentric perspective can move beyond a racial uplift approach to African American literature and history and help paint a clearer picture of the rich diversity of African American life and culture

Writing Jazz Nicholas M. Evans, 2015-12-22 This study examines how early writers of jazz criticism such as Gilbert Seldes and Carl Van Vechten and literature F Scott Fitzgerald and Langston Hughes as well as jazz performers and composers such as Al Jolson Sophie Tucker and George Gershwin associated the music directly with questions about identity racial ethnic national gendered and sexual and with historical developments like industrialization Going beyond the study of melody harmony and rhythm this book s interdisciplinary approach takes seriously the cultural beliefs about jazz that inspired interracial contact moralistic panic bohemian slumming visions of American democracy and much more Detailed textual analysis of fiction nonfiction film and musical performance illustrates the complexity of these cultural beliefs in the 1920s and also shows their survival to the present day In part jazz absorbed the U S cultural imagination due to the nineteenth century artistic search for music that would define the national character To the chagrin of Anglo Saxon nativists jazz ascended as an exemplar of cultural hybridity and pluralism The writers and entertainers studied in this volume most of whom were minorities of Jewish Irish or African heritage hailed the new social possibilities that they heard and felt in jazz Yet most of them also qualified their enthusiasm by remaining wary of both the seductions of jazz s commercialization and the loss of ethnic identity in the melting pot

Women Writing the American Artist in Novels of Development from 1850-1932
