

A romantic scene featuring a man and a woman in a close embrace. The woman, on the left, has long blonde hair and is wearing a patterned dress. The man, on the right, has dark hair and is wearing a maroon shirt. They are looking at each other with soft expressions, and the man's hand is resting on the woman's chest. The background is a soft, out-of-focus grey.

The Bachelor S Surrender:

Bachelors, Manhood, and the Novel, 1850-1925 Katherine V. Snyder,1999-09-02 Katherine Snyder s study explores the significance of the bachelor narrator a prevalent but little recognised figure in premodernist and modernist fiction by male authors including Hawthorne James Conrad Ford and Fitzgerald Snyder demonstrates that bachelors functioned in cultural and literary discourse as threshold figures who by crossing the shifting permeable boundaries of bourgeois domesticity highlighted the limits of conventional masculinity The very marginality of the figure Snyder argues effects a critique of gendered norms of manhood while the symbolic function of marriage as a means of plot resolution is also made more complex by the presence of the single man Bachelor figures made moreover an ideal narrative device for male authors who themselves occupied vexed cultural positions By attending to the gendered identities and relations at issue in these narratives Snyder s study discloses the aesthetic and political underpinnings of the traditional canon of English and American male modernism
