Federal Communications Commission, 2017 Consuming Environments Mike Budd, Steve Craig, Clayton M. Steinman, 1999 This is an exploration of how much TV people watch why they watch too much and what they see The authors argue that while people may have good reasons for watching television they seem to be unaware that such habits might be harmful to their environmental health The book examines how advertising and media companies have shaped the commercial content of most television tracing industry motives and operations and their increasing concentration in fewer hands Free Culture Lawrence Lessig, 2004 From the most important thinker on intellectual property in the Internet era The New Yorker a landmark manifesto about the genuine closing of the American mind Lawrence Lessig could be called a cultural environmentalist One of America s most original and influential public intellectuals his focus is the social dimension of creativity how creative work builds on the past and how society encourages or inhibits that building with laws and technologies In his two previous books Code and The Future of Ideas Lessig concentrated on the destruction of much of the original promise of the Internet Now in Free Culture he widens his focus to consider the diminishment of the larger public domain of ideas In this powerful wake up call he shows how short sighted interests blind to the long term damage they re inflicting are poisoning the ecosystem that fosters innovation All creative works books movies records software and so on are a compromise between what can be imagined and what is possible technologically and legally For more than two hundred years laws in America have sought a balance between rewarding creativity and allowing the borrowing from which new creativity springs The original term of copyright set by the Constitution in 1787 was seventeen years Now it is closer to two hundred Thomas Jefferson considered protecting the public against overly long monopolies on creative works an essential government role What did he know that we ve forgotten Lawrence Lessig shows us that while new technologies always lead to new laws never before have the big cultural monopolists used the fear created by new technologies specifically the Internet to shrink the public domain of ideas even as the same corporations use the same technologies to control more and more what we can and can t do with culture As more and more culture becomes digitized more and more becomes controllable even as laws are being toughened at the behest of the big media groups What s at stake is our freedom freedom to create freedom to build and ultimately freedom to imagine New York Magazine, 1993-05-17 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea
