Orphans of the East Constantin Parvulescu, 2015-06-08 An analysis of films produced in post World War II Eastern Europe featuring the trope of the orphan and the issues these characters addressed Unlike the benevolent orphan found in Charlie Chaplin's The Kid or the sentimentalized figure of Little Orphan Annie the orphan in postwar Eastern European cinema takes on a more politically fraught role embodying the tensions of individuals struggling to recover from war and grappling with an unknown future under Soviet rule By exploring films produced in postwar Hungary the German Democratic Republic Czechoslovakia Romania and Poland Constantin Parvulescu traces the way in which cinema envisioned and debated the condition of the post World War II subject and the new man of Soviet style communism In these films the orphan becomes a cinematic trope that interrogates socialist visions of ideological institutionalization and re education and stands as a silent critic of the system's shortcomings or as a resilient spirit who has resisted capture by the political apparatus of the new state By using the trope of an orphan Constantin Parvulescu demonstrates how films made in countries such as Hungary East Germany Poland Czechoslovakia and Romania reflected on the specific problems affecting Eastern Europe after 1945 such as the loss of population economic backwardness the legacy of the Holocaust while engaging in wider debates especially the superiority of socialism over capitalism Economically and elegantly written it demonstrates that cinema produced in the periphery can be central to our understanding of films as ideological tools This is one of the best books on Eastern European cinema ever written Ewa Mazierska University of Central Lancashire Groundbreaking The author's comparative transnational perspective in chapters devoted to close textual analyses of each narrative demonstrates the value of reading film as a primary source for understanding the relationships among state power intergenerational trauma and revolutionary subjectivity Parvulescu's highly original portrayal of a landscape of parentless children evokes the trauma of war and the specificity of the socialist experiment in the former Eastern Bloc Catherine Portuges University of Massachusetts Amherst Parvulescu has taken a highly innovative approach to socialist and post socialist cinema in the region and one that is vividly illustrated by a superb selection of films Studies in European Cinema

Dreadful Desires Charlie Yi Zhang, 2022-02-07 In Dreadful Desires Charlie Yi Zhang examines how the Chinese state deploys affective notions of love to regulate the population and secure China's place in the global economy Zhang shows how the state frames love as a set of desires that encompass heteronormative intimacy familial and communal attachment upward mobility and private property ownership These desires as circulated in performance in the nationalistic ceremony same sex romantic fan fiction the wildly popular reality television dating show If You Are the One and the cult of patriarchal personality around Xi Jinping are explicitly based in oppressive systems of gender class and sexuality Zhang contends that such desires connect love to economic survival and gender normativity in ways that underwrite Chinese neoliberalism at the expense of individual flourishing By outlining how state framed forms of love create desires that cannot be fulfilled Zhang places China at the forefront of using affective attachments to nation leader and family in the global shifts toward exploitation and authoritarianism Missiles and Rockets ,1959 Issues for Oct 1957 May 1958 include section Missile electronics v 11 no 1 7 I, Circe | Theological Volume 2 Eureka Circe,2025 Columbia River Hydropower and Miscellaneous Land Management Bills United States.
