Tiny Sunbirds Far Away English Edition:

Tiny Sunbirds, Far Away Christie Watson, 2011-05-10 Winner of the 2011 Costa First Novel Award When their mother catches their father with another woman twelve year old Blessing and her fourteen year old brother Ezikiel are forced to leave their comfortable home in Lagos for a village in the Niger Delta to live with their mother's family Without running water or electricity Warri is at first a nightmare for Blessing Her mother is gone all day and works suspiciously late into the night to pay the children's school fees Her brother once a promising student seems to be falling increasingly under the influence of the local group of violent teenage boys calling themselves Freedom Fighters Her grandfather a kind if misguided man is trying on Islam as his new religion of choice and is even considering the possibility of bringing in a second wife But Blessing's grandmother wise and practical soon becomes a beloved mentor teaching Blessing the ways of the midwife in rural Nigeria Blessing is exposed to the horrors of genital mutilation and the devastation wrought on the environment by British and American oil companies As Warri comes to feel like home Blessing becomes increasingly aware of the threats to its safety both from its unshakable but dangerous traditions and the relentless carelessness of the modern world Tiny Sunbirds Far Away is the witty and beautifully written story of one family's attempt to survive a new life they could never have imagined struggling to find a deeper sense of identity along the way

Fresh Ecocritical Voices in African Literatures and Cultures Chinonye Ekwueme-Ugwu, Joyce Onoromhenre Agofure, Nsah Mala, 2025-10-13 This edited volume brings together fresh voices both emerging and established on the ecocritical landscape within African literatures and cultures In the era of the Anthropocene the editors and contributors demonstrate how African cultural products address climate and ecological concerns including activism animal and plant conservation climate change environmental degradation food security disasters ecosystems and social injustice The volume offers critical and comparative analyses that transcend the boundaries of languages places and textual genres Significantly it foregrounds the intersectionality of ecological issues with social economic and political dimensions By doing so it highlights how environmental challenges are intricately linked to questions of identity space justice and indigenous knowledge systems While espousing classical textual analysis and beginning to gesture towards empirical experimentation the volume exemplifies ongoing decolonial and postcolonial approaches in environmental humanities from the African continent and the Global South Majority
