Krueger,2014-07 This concise encyclopedic reference profiles more than 800 British poets Travel Writing and Re-Enactment Lucas Tromly,2023-09-07 Travel Writing and Re Enactment Echotourism explores the popular subgenre of travel narratives that re enact historically prominent journeys Drawing on philosopher Walter Benjamin this monograph reads such re enactments as quests for aura in which travellers seek to capture a sense of distinction and historical profundity Travel Writing and Re Enactment frames the re enactment of past journeys in a number of contexts including Benjamin s writing on mechanical reproduction Judith Butler s work on gender performance and postmodern parody Echotourist journeys are surprisingly contingent and precarious and force travellers to navigate historical changes involving empire gender and travel practice in densely performative ways Through close readings of contemporary travel narratives this monograph considers the legacies of Lord Byron Charles Darwin Graham Greene Mary Kingsley and Ernest Shackleton among others Travel Writing and Re Enactment examines the way literary re enactment expresses and sometimes confounds the desire to find meaning through travel in the contemporary world

Identity and Intercultural Exchange in Travel and Tourism Anthony David Barker,2015 This book looks at the relationship between questions of identity formation and modern practices in travelling and tourism New and creative patterns of behaviour and self realisation are now emerging due to the enormous commercial interests that lie behind the modern travel and tourism industries The volume will consider these issues and the challenges they create

Interpretation, Law and the Construction of Meaning Anne Wagner,Wouter Werner,Deborah Cao,2007-05-16 Legal semiotics emphasizes the contingency and fluidity of legal concepts and stresses the existence of overlapping competing and coexisting legal discourses In response to new problems changing power structures changing societal norms and new faces of injustice established doctrines are reconsidered reformulated and partly replaced by competing doctrines and hypotheses Given the relative indeterminacy of law it is no surprise that the problem of interpretation has always been one of the focal points of attention for legal semiotics Who has the power to define words and concepts Who can successfully assume the power to speak on behalf of the legal community Which methods are used to justify the power to define This book discusses the questions mentioned above from three related perspectives Legal theory Part I Judicial reasoning Part II Application of law in politics and diplomatic practice Part III

Pilgrimage J.F. Penn,2023-05-01 Pilgrimage attracts the seekers Those with a question to answer a problem to solve a sin to atone for an illness to be cured a prayer to be answered Pilgrims walk with a desire to make a change to mark a boundary from one life to another to heal to escape I needed all of these and more Perhaps you do too In mid October 2020 I walked the Pilgrims Way from Southwark Cathedral in London to Canterbury Cathedral in Kent England The following year in October 2021 as I recovered from COVID 19 I walked the St Cuthbert s Way from Melrose in Scotland to Lindisfarne Holy Island on the north east coast of England In September 2022 I walked the Camino de Santiago along the coastal route from Porto Portugal to Santiago de Compostela Spain These three solo pilgrimages helped me through a dark wood in my life and changed how I see the way ahead In this book I share my lessons learned and insights from walking these ancient ways as well as historical religious and cultural aspects and plenty of tips There are also questions for you to consider around your own journey Part 1 goes into practical and spiritual preparation before pilgrimage including how to make decisions about the route and whether to walk solo as well as what to take with you and how to face the fears that might hold you back Part 2 covers the journey itself with the practicalities of the pilgrim's day as well as how walking the path of history and facing the challenge of the way can give you much needed perspective on life and perhaps even a glimpse of the divine Part 3 addresses the arrival at your destination and how to leave room for the gifts of pilgrimage to emerge after your return home as well as how my three walks impacted my experience of mid life At the end you'll find appendices with practical tips for each of the three ways as well as a gear list and bibliography for further reading I hope you find this book useful if you feel a call to pilgrimage or a need for change in your life These three walks have certainly been pivotal for me

Father and Son Jonathan Raban, 2024-09-24 A NEW YORKER BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR A poignant memoir of love trauma and recovery after a life changing stroke twinned to a powerful account of his father's experience in World War II by a winner of the National Book Critics Circle Award A beautiful compelling memoir Raban's final work is a gorgeous achievement Ian McEwan New York Times best selling author of Lessons In June 2011 just days before his sixty ninth birthday Jonathan Raban was sitting down to dinner with his daughter when he found he couldn't move his knife to his plate Later that night at the hospital doctors confirmed what all had suspected that he had suffered a massive hemorrhagic stroke paralyzing the right side of his body Once he became stable Raban embarked on an extended stay at a rehabilitation center where he became acquainted with and struggled to accept the limitations of his new body learning again how to walk and climb stairs attempting to bathe and dress himself and rethinking how to write and even read Woven into these pages is an account of a second battle one that his own father faced in the trenches during World War II With intimate letters that his parents exchanged at the time Raban places the budding love of two young people within the tumultuous landscape of the war's various fronts from the munition strewn beaches of Dunkirk to blood soaked streets of Anzio Moving between narratives his and theirs Raban artfully explores the human capacity to adapt to trauma as well as the warmth strength and humor that persist despite it The result is Father and Son a powerful story of mourning but also one of resilience
