Barry B Witham,2020-04-27 Author Barry B Witham reclaims the work of Manny Fried an essential American playwright so thoroughly blacklisted after he defied the House Committee on Un American Activities in 1954 and again in 1964 that his work all but completely disappeared from the canon Witham details Manny Fried's work inside and outside the theatre and examines his three major labor plays and the political climate that both nurtured and disparaged their productions Drawing on never before published interview materials Witham reveals the details of how the United States government worked to ruin Fried's career From Red Baiting to Blacklisting includes the complete text of Fried's major labor plays all long out of print In Elegy for Stanley Gorski Fried depicts one of the many red baiting campaigns that threatened countless unions in the wake of the Taft Hartley Act and the collusion of the Catholic Church with these activities In Drop Hammer Fried tackles the issues of union dues misappropriation and potential criminal activities In the third play The Dodo Bird perhaps his most popular Fried achieves a remarkable character study of a man outsourced from his job by technology and plant closures Manny Fried's plays portray the hard edges of capitalism and government power and illuminate present day struggles with hostility to labor unions and the passage in several states of right to work laws Fried had no illusions about the government's determination to destroy communism and unionism causes to which he was deeply committed

Always Resisting Eric Newhall,2024-09-12 In this memoir Eric Newhall traces his life and political evolution with a particular focus on his time inside Lompoc Federal Correctional Institution where he was incarcerated for refusing to participate in the Vietnam War Beginning with his youth in an all white neighborhood in Portland Oregon he describes his undergraduate experience at Occidental College in Los Angeles 1963-1967 his time in prison and the powerful impact that his time behind bars had on both his 34 year marriage and 44 year teaching career His memoir is a reminder that much work remains to be done that subtle racism takes many forms and can be found even in outwardly progressive families like the one in which he was raised and that the social problems examined here are even more pressing today than they were during the 1960s The book will be particularly compelling to readers concerned by the threat to democracy posed by persistent war authoritarianism and racism Love, Money, and Revenge Robert Cory Phillips,2014-11-02 Guyiser Blackman a millionaire is blind by the explosion of his jet airplane His factory is also in danger from a man that wants to kill him Love is big part of his life when he meets Cindy Taylorhis love for her and his factory She loves him and her love for her career in television as a reporter Both loves will collide Guyiser will get his revenge when he hears News at Eleven Love money murder and revenge all play a big part in this exciting novel by Robert Cory Phillips
